Humphrey Defends ADA on TV Program at Green Bay

Teen-Agers Heckle Senator During Brief Stop Monday

BY JAMES BARTELT
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Sen. Hubert Humphrey declared Monday night that the Americans for Democratic Action "ought to get a merit badge for service beyond the line of duty" rather than baseless criticism from the uninformed.

Humphrey gave this answer to a questioning panel during the recording of a television program during a brief stop in Green Bay. But the answer as well was prompted by a cluster of teen-age hecklers at the WBAY auditorium.

About 1,000 persons, most of them from St. Norbert College, heard Humphrey speak and answer questions during a 43-minute appearance at the auditorium. The Democratic vice-presidential nominee Monday also appeared in Milwaukee, Racine, and Madison.

100 Empty Seats

There were about 100 empty seats in the hall, in corners of the balcony and behind camera stands, during the dinner-hour appearance. The hecklers were of high school age, and some of them had signs identifying Preble High School.

Humphrey took the heckling in good-natured stride at the start of his speech but noted later when interruptions continued that the hecklers were guilty of "bad manners" which was losing votes.

The chanting of "We want Barry," Humphrey joked, showed "our young friends are walking the path of political transgression."

"Whenever we here these so few voices but very loud ones, we have to remind them that by November the 'Barry' picking season is over," he said.

Later, when the hecklers chanted "What about the ADA?"

200 Africans Jailed In Political Trials

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP) — About 200 Port Elizabeth Africans have been jailed in recent weeks in a series of political trials held in country towns for security reasons.

In the latest trials at Somerset East and Cradock, 35 Africans were jailed for 3½ to 7½ years each. They were convicted under the suppression of communism law of being members of the banned African National Congress and contributing or soliciting funds for the congress.

Humphrey said "Maybe a man who was a member knows why it was established rather than somebody who can't spell it."

"If we could keep them acting with such bad manners, they would lose all the votes," he said.

After a flurry of sign-swinging, civil defense police escorted two of the demonstrators from the hall.

One of the questions during the panel program which followed Humphrey's speech was whether he regarded the ADA as an asset or liability. Humphrey is a former vice-president of ADA.

In Minnesota, Humphrey said, there is no "nonsense" about ADA because people know it was the organization which "cleaned out Communists, Marxists, and Leftists" from the state Democratic party after the 1948 Wallace - Progressive infiltration.

New British Surcharge Increases Import Costs

Labor Government Moves to Lower Imports by $560 Million Annually

LONDON (AP) — Britons resigned themselves today to stiff price increases on manufactured imports as a result of the Labor government's new 15 per cent surcharge to cut buying abroad.

Traders on the European continent and in Ireland expressed alarm that the crash action of Prime Minister Harold Wilson's new Labor government would sharply reduce their lucrative flow of exports to Britain. Wilson's experts anticipated imports would be cut about $560 million a year.

U.S. Approval

In Washington, the U.S. Treasury commended the plan as a prompt and effective way to protect the stability of the pound sterling. The surcharge will apply to about 50 per cent of the $1.5 billion worth of goods the United States sells to Britain each year.

The surcharge affects all imports except food, raw materials and raw tobacco. At 15 per cent, cost of the items involved will rise about three shillings — 42 cents — to the pound — $2.80. But economists believe that after sales taxes and retailers' profits the actual increase will be closer to 20 per cent.

Emergency Step

The surcharge was the main step the government announced Monday in an emergency program designed to check Britain's widening balance of payments — the difference between what the nation earns abroad and what it buys. To spur exports, the government promised exporters tax rebates ranging from 1 to 3 per cent.

Wilson said Monday night in a television address that Britain could "no longer afford easy-going attitudes." The import levies, he said, were on "goods which a country like Britain should be able to make herself."

He stressed that the measures were only temporary and denied that his government favored increased trade barriers.

There was some fear that the price increases would set off a new round of wage demands and defeat the government's

253 Constitutional Amendments and State Laws Face Voters in 40 States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Voters in 40 states will ballot next Tuesday on home state issues ranging from housing discrimination to capital punishment.

Up for decision are 253 proposed state laws or constitutional amendments.

The spotlight is on a proposal which would prohibit the California Legislature from barring discrimination in real estate sales, as it did in a law enacted last year. Some observers think the proposal might play a role in determining who gets the state's 40 electoral votes in the presidential election.

Real estate interests and other groups are leading the fight for approval of the California proposition which would permit a person to sell, lease or rent property to any person he chooses.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown and other state leaders oppose the amendment and defend California's so-called fair housing law which prohibits racial discrimination in real estate transactions.

Neither President Johnson nor Sen. Barry Goldwater has taken a stand on the matter but some political observers think a big turnout in favor of the proposal would help Goldwater, the Republican nominee.

Gambling proposals of some sort are on the ballot in four states — California, Washington, Montana and Arkansas.

California voters have a choice between two amendments. One would authorize state-franchised, privately operated lotteries, while the other would prohibit privately operated lotteries. If both pass, the one with the highest number of votes wins.

In Arkansas the question is whether to legalize the gambling casinos in Hot Springs, Ark., which have operated off and on in the past outside the law.

In Montana the proposal would prohibit the legislature from banning gambling. Washington voters are being asked to decide whether to legalize slot machines.

The only question in Michigan is proposed adoption of the so-called Massachusetts ballot which would make split-ticket voting easier.

Voting law changes are up for decision in Connecticut and Hawaii, while Kansas and North Dakota voters will decide on proposals to abolish personal property taxes on certain possessions.

Among the bond issues up for approval are one for $200 million for roads in West Virginia and $100 million for schools in Massachusetts voters will North Carolina.

'Shared Time' School Plans Called Legal

Thompson Opinion Given Rothwell on Kimberly Question

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — With an open recognition of probable repercussions, Atty. Gen. George Thompson today declared his official opinion that "shared time" programs under which private or parochial school children are enrolled for part-time study in the public schools are legal under the state constitution.

Thompson said such a system, suggested in a proposal in the village of Kimberly more than a year ago is legal under the implied meaning of the law, although he said he is aware that many authorities will dispute his conclusion.

The opinion was given to Angus Rothwell, state superintendent of public instruction, who said local school officers will be required to consider carefully the meaning of the opinion. Rothwell had been asked by Kimberly school officials about the legality of non-public school children attending the district public school on a part-time basis for certain classes only.

Public Money

Thompson said the shared time program there would require additional teachers in the public junior high school or eighth grade and that the public school district would be required to spend tax money for "text books and other supplies, but the parochial school students would not be transported to the public school. The State Supreme Court several years ago specifically ruled that the use of public money for such transportation would be unconstitutional.

"While the statutes confer no express power on school district boards to authorize the part-time attendance at public schools, it is my opinion that other express powers conferred on such boards give them an im-

Broad Identity Of U. S.-British Interests Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — British Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker, ending two days of talks with U.S. officials, said today a "broad identity of interests" between the two allies has been established.

Gordon Walker gave that sum-up to newsmen after a 45-minute meeting with President Johnson at the White House.

Their meeting is expected to pave the way for a post-election meeting between Johnson and Harold Wilson, the British prime minister.

OSHKOSH — Wisconsin and Fox Valley Republican officials are busy here today making last-minute preparations for Wednesday's visit by Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Johnson to Visit State on Friday

Confirmation today by Wisconsin Democratic officials that President Lyndon Johnson will be in Milwaukee on Friday means that within one week, all four leaders of the Democratic and Republican national tickets will be making Wisconsin a battleground in the final week of the 1964 campaign.

Johnson will arrive in Milwaukee at Mitchell Field at 11:45 a.m. and head for Kosciuszko Park on the city's south side for a 30-minute talk before departing for Rockford, Ill.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, made a swing through the state Monday; GOP vice-presidential candidate Rep. William Miller will speak in La Crosse Wednesday morning, and Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, will visit Oshkosh Wednesday afternoon.

Threaten Reprisals if White Rulers Declare Independent State

LONDON (AP) — Britain self-governing territory decried Southern Rhodesia's manding independence while white rulers today they will be the white minority still has guilty of treason and rebellion if control. Britain wants a new they unilaterally declare the constitution promising the African East African territory's indecan majority control ultimately, pence.

Economic disaster, banishment from the Commonwealth and isolation from most of the world would follow if the country breaks from Britain, a government statement said.

The stern statement came from Prime Minister Harold Wilson's office a day after 622 African chiefs and headmen meeting outside Salisbury gave a unanimous "yes" to Rhodesia's Premier Ian Smith's "independence now" plan.

Chiefs' Opinion

The British government had said earlier it did not consider the chiefs represented the opinion of Southern Rhodesia's African majority, which in 1961 outnumbered the whites 3.6 million to 221,500.

Smith has scheduled a national referendum Nov. 5 in which the largely white electorate is expected to vote emphatically for independence now. Smith then is expected to demand release from Britain, with the threat of declaring independence unilaterally if refused.

The British warning sent a shock through the Rhodesian capital. Some white Rhodesians felt it might force Smith and his colleagues to retreat.

Act of Rebellion

A few said it could spur Smith's government to a unilateral declaration of independence within the next 48 hours.

"A declaration of independence," the British statement said, "would be an open act of rebellion and it would be treasonable to take steps to give effect to it."

It was the toughest language yet used in the dispute between Britain and the leaders of the

Cuban Buses Lost at Sea

Half of Vehicles Roll Over Side As Ships Collide

LONDON (AP) — An East German and a Japanese freighter collided in dense fog in the Thames estuary today and British "buses for Cuba" were in trouble again.

The Magdeburg, owned by the Deutsche Seereederei concern of Rostock, was beached near Tilbury after the collision with the Yamashiro Maru, 10,466 tons. The German vessel, with 23 British buses for Cuba as deck cargo, rolled over on its side. About half of the bus cargo went into the water.

Leyland Motors, Ltd., sold the buses to Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government in January. Despite strenuous U.S. State Department protests, the British government said the deal was purely commercial.

The Cubans ordered 450 buses in January and 500 more in June.

THIS...is a newspaper

I am something malleable called newsprint made from something unmalleable called wood pulp.

I am conceived, born, raised, nurtured to old age and dead... all in a 24-hour period. Even after I am dead, I am useful for several things like swatting flies, lining drawers and shelves, starting barbecue and hearth fires and enfolding the day's accumulation of garbage. I've even been known to keep people reasonably dry at baseball games during rainstorms.

I can be torn and clipped into pieces of various sizes. Ladies often carry some of these pieces in their shopping bags as reminders of what they want to buy and where they can get it. They, as well as their husbands, also mail pieces of me to friends and relatives like a recipe for marmalade to Aunt Martha, a picture of Dad and the "big one" that didn't get away, or a notice to Joe that the girl next door finally got married. I am the only media you can do this with.

I am joyful, entertaining, the courier of laughter and good news.

I am also sorrowful, depressing, the source of tears and sad words.

If asked, I can shout loud and harshly and boldly to all who can see me.

I prefer to speak softly, directly and, above all, truthfully.

People often accuse me of being biased, prejudiced, opinionated and overbearing.

I try to be impartial, tolerant, understanding and forthright.

I am not a mirror, but I reflect the image of a community by what I am able to say about the people of the community.

For this reason, some people say I am a gossip, nosey, and a blabber-mouth.

I like to think that I am informative, inquisitive, and purposeful.

Every day, I average enough words to complete two lengthy novels... words that are as accurate, as descriptive, as knowledgeable as human effort and sound education can make them.

I have both a character and a personality. These are equal to the character and personality of those who conceive, and nurture me and witness my daily demise and next day's reincarnation.

I am a friend of love, compassion, understanding, freedom, justice, education, worship, progress, democracy, people... and animals.

I am an enemy of hate, indifference, intolerance, slavery, injustice, ignorance, bigotry, procrastination, despotism, and ghosts.

I am an encyclopedia of knowledge about war and peace; the stars in space and the caverns of the earth and sea; of sports, of sciences, of politics, of economics, of social customs and desires.

I am a reporter of national events today, a history of nations tomorrow. I am extremely linguistic and can speak every language.

I am a student's notebook, an historian's source of reference.

I defend the strong and reveal the existence of the weak.

I am what people make me, because I am the result of all that they think, everything they do... to themselves and to each other.

I am able to be remembered longer than any other media because I am not waves of air nor just electrical impulses.

I am read by the majority of people from the day they can read to the time when they can no longer see... nor need to know.

I may disagree with what people read, but I defend their right to read it with all the strength at my command.

Brig. Gen. Sanders Reserve Unit To Hear Talk By General

Brig. Gen. H. L. Sanders, former assistant deputy chief of staff, North American Air Defense Command, Colorado Springs, will address the Fox Valley Reserve Officers Association at a noon luncheon Thursday, according to Col. John M. Rosebush, Appleton, president of the local organization.

Sanders, in the army for 37 years, retired last year to live in Winneconne. He served on the staff of the United Nations command during the Korean conflict. Later he commanded all of the army air defense elements in the Puget Sound area until May, 1962, when he was transferred to NORAD headquarters.

During his address Thursday, General Sanders will be on a direct telephone connection with the NORAD combat operations center, Rosebush indicated. The luncheon at Holiday Inn, is open to ROA members and their guests, by reservation only, he said.

Kremlin Presses For Restoration of Communist Unity

MOSCOW (AP)—The Kremlin's new leaders pressed their campaign today to restore unity in the European Communist world in the aftermath of Nikita Khrushchev's ouster.

The government newspaper, Izvestia aimed an appeal at the Soviet Union's East European allies, warning in a front-page editorial that further economic progress in the bloc will require stronger unity.

Izvestia made no mention of Red China and the bitter dispute which split it from the Soviet Union. The appeal apparently sought to quiet unrest that has swept the East European nations since Khrushchev was dumped Oct. 14 as premier and first secretary of the Communist party.

Izvestia did not name Khrushchev, but it repeated assurances that his policies of de-Stalinization and economic progress would be continued by party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

Flu Cases Reported In Appleton

Several cases of flu—most of them mild—have been reported in Appleton in recent days.

Dr. James Laird, city health commissioner, said mostly adults have been hit by the intestinal disorders.

"There have been no serious cases to my knowledge," Dr. Laird said.

"I would advise residents to get flu shots from their family doctor," Dr. Laird said, adding that it was not too late.

On a brighter note, Dr. Laird said reportable communicable diseases have hit a low for the year.

The September report of the health department shows only 31 cases of mumps and three of chicken pox reported.

There were no cases of German Measles in Appleton last month. A few months ago the city was in the grips of a measles epidemic.

Lawrentians Come Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Rosebush were hosts at a cocktail party Thursday evening for members of the Downer Alumnae Board before Lawrence University's homecoming weekend. Above, the host, right, talks with Mrs. William Savitt, Oshkosh; Miss Florence Otto, New York City, N. Y., a Lawrence University trustee, and Mrs. Leonard Widen, Milwaukee. Downer Alumnae Association president. Below, at the homecoming dance at Colman Hall, are alumni Mr. and Mrs. Donald Patterson, West Chicago, Ill.; Ken Anderson, Naperville, Ill., and Miss Joan Elkins, Rochester, Minn. Miss Jane Tibbets, Appleton, was crowned homecoming queen in halftime ceremonies.

Lawrentians from all over the country came back to Appleton last weekend for homecoming. For some, it was a traditional trek. For others, those to whom Downer is alma mater, it was a first.

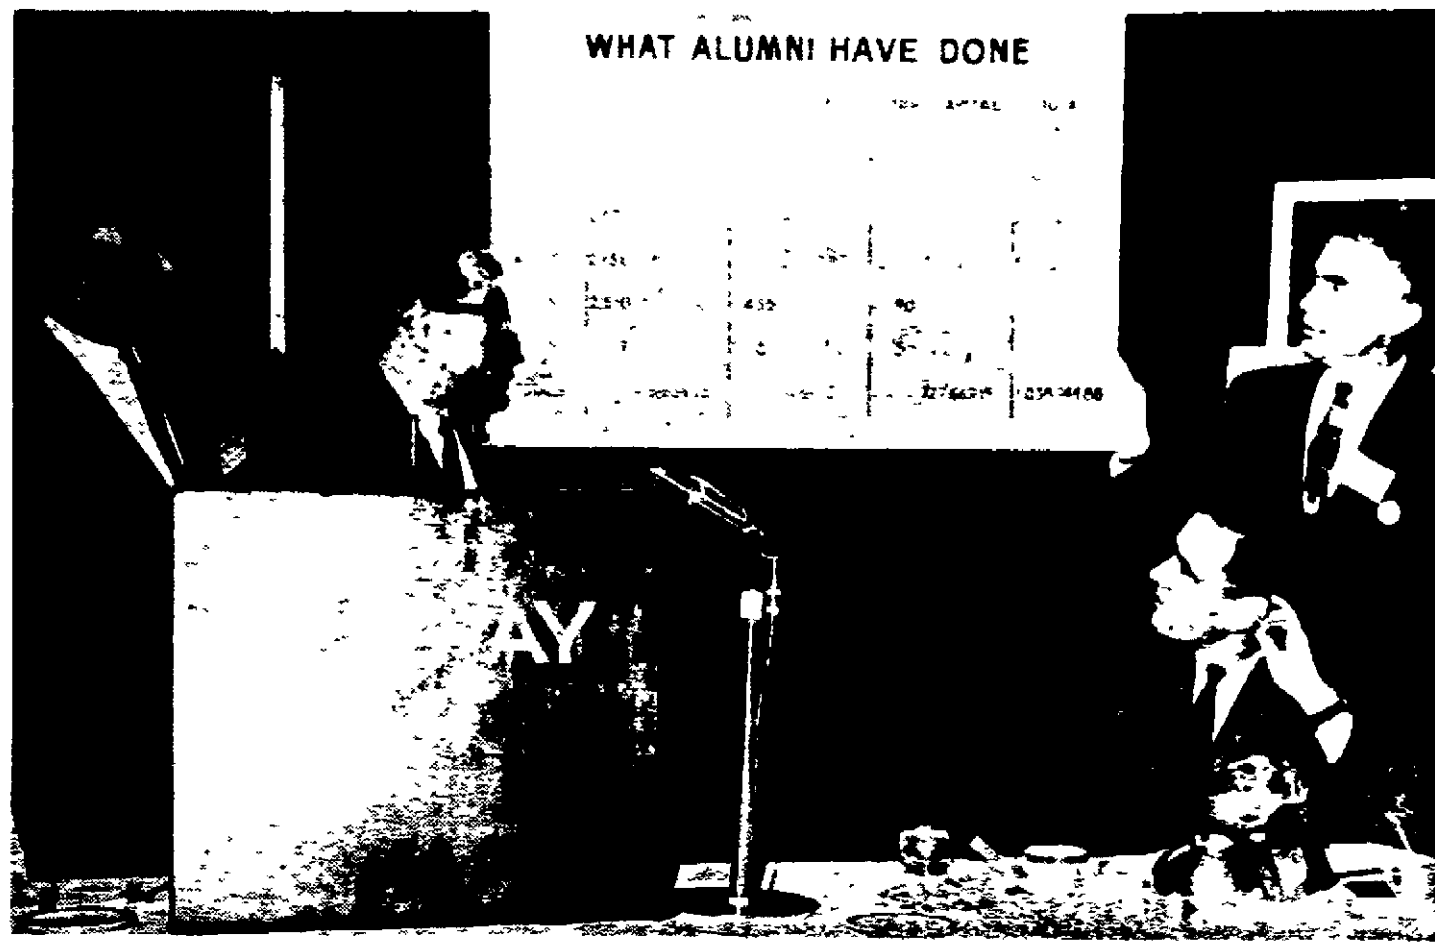

There were activities for everyone, from honored alumni to freshmen, on the Lawrence University campus Friday and Saturday. A morning convocation began Saturday's schedule. The Ripon Redmen were rivals in the 45th annual homecoming football contest, and the traditional dance began at 9 p. m. at Colman Hall.

Between the highlights, groups met to conduct business, watch parades and skits, view decorations, dine at barbecues, watch the game and crowning of the homecoming queen, visit fraternity Open Houses and talk with friends.

Alumni Were Served Coffee in a huge tent in front of the gym after the game Saturday afternoon. A post-game reception at Alexander Gymnasium was sponsored by the Lawrence Alumni Association. Above, alumni and students drink a toast to their defeated Vikings. Below, at a Saturday morning breakfast and business session at the Conway Hotel, fund raisers from around the country talked of progress and plans. They are John Reeve, Appleton, chairman of the Alumni Fund Capital Program; Don Brown, Neenah; Roland Fenz, San Francisco, Calif., an area committee chairman, and Don Koski, Menasha, chairman of the Alumni Fund Committee. man, New London, at 4 p. m. Saturday at Peace Lutheran Church. The Rev. John Kramer officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Engebretson, route 1, Amherst. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman, 1111 Dexter St. New London.

The bride chose Miss Alice Anderson, Appleton, as maid of honor. Mrs. William Kopitzke assisted as bridesmaid.

Acting as best man was Melvin Borchardt. Roger Kitzman served as groomsman. Guests were ushered by James Engebretson, William Hoffman and William Kopitzke.

The couple greeted guests at a reception in the church parlors.

Mrs. Hoffman is employed at Aid Association for Lutherans, Appleton. Mr. Hoffman is a barber for Fasher's Barber Shop, New London.

After a honeymoon in northern Wisconsin, the couple will live at 113 E. Hancock St., New London.

Some of the cruellest hoaxes have been perpetrated by medical quacks peddling "cures" for almost every disease, ranging from arthritis to cancer. One California man made several million dollars by selling a "magic box" which supposedly sent out waves that could treat and cure almost any human ill. And examples of this kind are not rare.

fled even the experts, and pick- ed up nearly a quarter of a mil- lion dollars, until his grand de- ception was uncovered in 1963. He did only drawings, water- colors and pastels. Why not oil paintings? "They take too long," Schecroun explained.

One of history's most success- ful hoaxes was engineered by a French peasant girl named The- rese Daurignac. One day in the early 1880's, she began showing her neighbors a duly attested copy of a will leaving her $20,- 000,000. The bequest was made by a rich American, in gratitude for her having nursed him through illness.

No one ever saw his money; the "legacy" was forever tied up in legal technicalities care- fully invented by Mademoiselle Daurignac. But on the strength of it, she persuaded French bankers, over a 20-year period, to lend her $12,000,000!

Check Passers Humor

Those who have tried to get rich quick by cashing bogus checks have sometimes shown a sense of humor. The FBI reports that one hot check passer wrote his drafts on such fictitious in- stitutions as "The East Bank of the Mississippi." Another "pa- perhanger" signed his checks, "U. R. Stuk" and "N. O. Good."

The record for passing bad checks was set by the late Fred- erick Emerson Peters who, by dint of some 200 impersonations, netted himself $250,000 with 28,- 000 rubber checks. But he was possessed by the spirit of char- ity. Among his many philanthro- pies was a silver chalice for a cathedral in Washington, D. C.

Peters paid for the chalice with a check, of course. And the check bounced — of course.

Your Problems
Pregnant Wife Not Allowed
In Public by Mixed-Up Mate

BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a young married woman who has a serious problem. My husband and I were married last year. We are expecting our first child in eight weeks. A month ago we were invited to a party. I wanted to go but my husband made all sorts of excuses, so we stayed home. Two weeks ago there was an office party that he didn't even tell me about. I felt hurt when I learned of it. He said he "forgot."
Last night I wanted to go to a movie and he said "No." I decided then and there to have it out with him. Finally he confessed that he was ashamed to be seen with me "in my condition." He thinks pregnant women should not appear in public after they begin to show.
I'm so hurt I don't know what to do. Please print my letter and your advice—Don't Want to Hide.

Please, Ann, give us a hand. We need it.—Ohio Teen
Dear Teen: I spoke to several thousand 4-H'ers in Indiana just last summer and I can vouch for the quality of the members of your organization. They are the greatest. Maybe I should have addressed the parents instead, if what you say is true.
I'm printing your letter and

Dear Don't: Your husband is a plenty mixed-up kid. What a pity that he fails to appreciate the beauty and the miracle of a new life in the making. It will take more than a word from me to straighten him out. I hope your doctor can do it.
DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please put this letter in the paper so parents will realize that they are sometimes a problem.
I've been in 4-H Club work for five years and it's the greatest. Something happened recently to spoil it all for me.
I am showing horses this year for the first time. My Mom and Dad were both professional horse show people and they are determined to teach me. In one year, everything they learned in their entire lives.
They have pushed so hard that I wouldn't be me winning. I did win. It would be them winning.
I have talked this over with some of my friends in 4-H and they are having the same problem with their parents.

South wasn't sure whether he was bidding six spades as a sacrifice or in the hope of making it. East had bid six diamonds so confidently that South couldn't be sure of taking his two aces to defeat the slam. Moreover, South might easily make six spades if North had just a little help in the black suits. In any case, it couldn't cost much to bid six spades.

When West opened the ace of diamonds South studied the dummy but he was actually thinking about the East hand. East had confidently bid six diamonds with only one ace in his hand! The jump to six diamonds

How to Choose two nice boys, asks a 17-year-old. "I have met two boys that I like very much — one is a hard working type, does some chores and works after school. The other is very nice, but doesn't work. His family is well off. I have dated them for more than a year, but now both are talking about marriage, and I don't know which one I prefer. I really like them both. Should I try to keep them both until I make up my mind, or what?" When a girl can't decide between two boys, often she should wait until a third boy shows up. Since the boys are so different perhaps each supplements the other, and perh a s you couldn't be content with one of these two boys, if you now bank on two for companionship. You should be more aware of one than the other after a year if it really matters. Brother Helps? Older brothers can be big bores for some girls. "My brother is one year older than I and my mother relies on him as an informer. She takes his opinion about boys I go out with. If he doesn't like them, she doesn't, even if she has never met them. He never likes a boy I date, and I tell him to keep his mouth shut, but he won't." He's probably trying to save you for a good friend, if he ever finds one that he thinks is good enough for you. That's the way older brothers are. Many have a protective feeling for

Bachelor Life Has Its Merits

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Wifely remarks that make a husband wish he were a bachelor:
“I don’t see why you need more than $1 for lunch.”
“Jean’s husband makes $25 more a week than you do, and he’s no smarter than you are — or not that much more, anyway.”
“We’re just having scraps for dinner tonight, dear. I didn’t feel very hungry.”
“Other husbands I know love to discuss the office with their wives. Why don’t you? What goes on there that you don’t want me to know about?”
“Some evening I’m going to make a recording of how you talk after you’ve had three martinis, and play it back to you the next morning. It’ll make you cringe.”

Jealous?
“Is that a blonde hair on your coat?” I thought you told me your secretary was a brunette.”
“Not that I’m jealous. Me jealous?” He says ha ha.
“I took Emily to the orthodontist today. He says that for $1,000 he can make her teeth look like a movie star’s.”

“Other husbands I know love to take their wives dancing. So why do you have to be so different?”

“The television set is on the blink again. I think it’ll cost at least $50 to have it fixed. Don’t you think it would be more economical to buy a new one?”

“Why is it you men don’t like to take your wives along when you go fishing? If you ask my opinion, you all act like a bunch of heathen savages.”

“Put down that newspaper. There’s something I want to tell you — right now.”

“Guess what day this is.”
“You’re going to have to do something about those children. Before you lie down on the sofa, let me tell you what they were up to today.”

Turtle Comes First
“You’ll have to take your shower later, dear. Jimmy’s got his pet turtle in the bathtub.”

“Other husbands I know think it is a privilege to take their wives out once in a while. Why do you want to act like an old hermit?”

“Well, I might as well tell you the bad news now. The refrigerator collapsed today. But after all, we’ve had it for 14 years. I guess we’ll have to buy a new one.”

“I get so tired of living in this same old house that I could scream.”

“You never heard a single word I said. For that matter, you never do.”

Enjoy a Diet
A reducer's menus need not be dull or dreary. Repetitious or unappetizing fare leads a dieter into the pit of boredom and self-pity. And the only way she can climb out is to pamper herself with eating sprees.

The variety of foods that may be included on diet menus runs the gourmet gamut from A to Z—from Alaskan king crab to zucchini. Less exotic foods become banquet dishes by way of attractive garnishes.
A cup of clear bouillon becomes a chef's creation, when it is topped with a parsleyed lemon slice likewise the lowly string bean, when laced with slivers of pimiento.
Such flourishes add little to your budget, almost nothing to your calorie count. Yet they convey the idea of a feast, so that diet restrictions seem less of a punishment. You diet and like it!
What's more, you learn to plan and execute the sophisticated kind of menus that guests welcome in these days of universal weight-watching. Very few people today are rapturous

Q. We have a maple bed, oak dresser and walnut sewing machine (desk type) we want to re-finish. How do we go about this? Do we have to remove the old finish first? Is there some product that can be put over without removing the old finish?

A. Many paint, housewares and hardware dealers now carry a variety of furniture-finishing kits, containing finishes to be applied over old furniture finishes. Follow manufacturer's instructions carefully. These are for various wood-type finishes.
If you wish a painted (enamelled) finish, merely remove all trace of grease, wax, grime, gloss, etc., by wiping down with fine steel wool and turpentine. Then apply top quality enamel in desired color, following label directions.

Q. Is it possible to cover basement steps with plywood? Our steps turned out very badly (chipped, etc.). We have tried filling broken-off places with various cement preparations and nothing holds. We would like very much to cover the steps with tile, but feel there should be a smooth base underneath.

A. Yes, plywood can be used, if you get the exterior kind. Consult your building supplies or lumber dealer for the specific type to get for your purpose. And tile does need a smooth surface underneath. But you also need a smooth, level base for the plywood.
However, have you tried latex

Child Not Sloppy, Hostile But Needs to Learn Control
DEAR DR. JONES: Our 14-opposite-year-old boy wakes up arguing this way, although we treat them alike. Is it possible that our older boy was just born sloppy and hostile?

DEAR MRS. A. D.: Different sensitivities and energies may account for more or less concern about disorder or vigor in expressing displeasure. But that's a far cry from being born sloppy or hostile. Although you may believe you treat both boys alike, remember that life hasn't treated them the same way. Your first son has been king of the roost — and it's possible his irresponsibility and belligerence may reflect nothing but your failure to teach him self-control.
When he starts an argument, don't scold or lecture or let him have his way. Stop him! Tell him either to clear out to be gentle and hot water for removing himself or else to keep his hands and tongue to himself. My pamphlet, "How to Prevent Jealousy and Fighting," contains many suggestions you should find helpful.
With chores, personal hygiene, warm weather. In dry, cold and pets, insist on work before pleasure. Make certain there's no unnecessary work, though. Just knowing the fiber isn't Take away his dog if he doesn't love him enough to feed him. Don't let him leave for school, helping you make proper selections until he's reasonably neat and clean and his room is straight. And make certain his chores and homework are done before he goes to sleep.
If he has no major neurotic problems, such discipline should bring improvements in a month or so.

New Fibers Give Wear, Easy Care
The new generation of high strength rayons, the improved nylons and other recent fiber improvements offer greater wear and ease-of-care. Knowing the fiber used in a garment is a clue to the service you'll get from it.
Newer man-made fibers have some things in common. They're strong and resist abrasion yet they have a tendency to pill or have little balls of fiber that rub to the surface.
Most of them spring back from crushing so that they take a minimum of ironing. But they are sensitive to heat which makes it possible to put in a pleat or crease and have it stay.
Letergent Recommended
The man-mades don't pick up soil easily except for grease and oils. Most of them have an affinity for body oils and perspiration, so that makes them more difficult to care for. They need extra treatment with a liquid detergent and hot water for removing grease.
Usually they are easy to wash and they don't shrink. They dry quickly but because they don't absorb moisture easily they are less comfortable to wear in warm weather.
In dry, cold weather they're apt to pick up lint and carry static electricity. Just knowing the fiber isn't the total answer to quality but it does go a long way toward helping you make proper selections. A finish may be put on a fabric which scorches easily or which seems may pucker. Behavior during construction affects the satisfaction you get from a certain fiber. The combination of fibers used in a blend also affects quality and satisfaction of a garment.

Nelson Lashes Out Against Barry's, Knowles' Programs

Senator Backs Johnson, Reynolds, Ignores Proxmire in Talk Monday

More than 400 Outagamie and Winnebago County Democrats paid $5 apiece Monday night to hear Sen. Gaylord Nelson poke fun of two Republicans — presidential candidate Sen. Barry Goldwater and gubernatorial candidate Warren Knowles.

Speaking at the Darboy Club, Wisconsin's junior senator praised the records of President Lyndon Johnson and Gov. John Reynolds.

However, Nelson made no mention of the senior senator. William Proxmire, who is facing a determined challenge in this fall's election from Republican Wilbur Renk.

He praised the "Kennedy-Johnson administration" for introducing before Congress "the most controversial and complicated programs in history. What are they?" Nelson asked. Then he answered his own question.

Pass Rights Bill

"We faced up to our responsibilities in Congress," he said, "by passing the Civil Rights Bill. There never was any bill more controversial than this. Instead of dividing people throughout the land, we guaranteed the same rights to everyone."

"And President Johnson offered the most difficult tax bill in history—an $11 billion tax cut, but without a corresponding cut in federal spending."

This program was debated in Congress for over a year," Nelson said, "because it was hard to convince the bill's opponents that the tax cut would stimulate spending, stimulate investing power, stimulate economic growth which would in turn bring in more tax money and make the decrease in federal spending unnecessary."

Nelson cited several other

Board Says Activity Schedule Should Allow Church Program Time

Appleton Educators Request
Minimum of Wednesday Events

School activities should be held to a minimum on Wednesday afternoons and evenings to provide free time for churches to schedule youth activities, the Appleton Board of Education decided Monday.

The board made the decision after discussing the problem of a conflict of school and church activities with a delegation of Appleton clergymen. The clergymen said having one free night each week would help solve the problem and would be a help in planning church activities which do not conflict with other interests of students.

The school board instructed Supt. of Schools William Spears to work with his staff to reduce "concurrent" activities on Wednesday afternoon and evening "to an absolute minimum."

Off-Duty Arrest By Policeman Results in Fine

Youth Admits Guilt; Jury Trial Asked by Second One Arrested

KAUKAUNA — One of two youths arrested by an off-duty police officer has appeared in court, pleaded guilty to charge of speeding and was fined $15 by Oscar T. Jahns, municipal justice.

The youth, Herman Trudeau, 19, 347 N. Northland Ave., Appleton, told police, he was advised by his attorney to plead guilty and pay the fine. The second, James I. Van Dinter, 16, 814 N. Wilson St., Little Chute, asked for a 6-man jury trial, posted $50 bond and will appear in court at 10 a.m. Nov. 20.

The pair was arrested by an officer using his private car. Emmet Rohan, city attorney, refused to prosecute, telling the chief of police, the city insurance carrier would not cover officers using private cars.

Cites Statutes

Chief Harold Engerson contends state statutes list two places governing arrests by off-duty officers. He indicated "all arrests made by city officers are carefully screened and unless the arresting officer and the chief feel the case is airtight, the violators are not brought into court."

The two were arrested on Plank Road early this month. Police have been using private cars, with reimbursement from the common council, to patrol for Halloween for the past several years with no objection being filed.

Probation for Theft
Eugene A. Bruix, 28, 1512 S. Oneida St., was placed on probation for one year after he admitted theft of an electric blanket from an Appleton department store. He was charged Friday.

Appleton-School Budget Sets Tax Rate Hike at $2.91

Total Final Increase to Depend on County's Levy;
$3 to $4 Boost Predicted

BY WILLIAM C. CAREY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A 1965 budget calling for a $2.91 increase in the Appleton tax rate will be presented to the city council next week.

The finance committee concluded its review of departmental budgets and anticipated revenues Monday night.

The committee headed by Ald. Harold Hannemann, 10th, is recommending $264,816 be cut from original requests of all departments, board, and commissions which totaled a record $12,282,453.

Budgets as submitted had called for a $4.58 tax boost until budget examiners made deletions.

Just how much more Appleton property owners will have to pay over this year's rate will not be determined until the Outagamie County Board adopts its budget.

Higher County Level

On the basis of requests, the county levy against the city may be considerably higher for 1965.

Depending on the outcome of county board action, the combined tax rate (city, county and state levies) should range between $3 and $4 higher than the 1964 rate of $46.65 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

For example, on the basis of a $3 increase, the person with a home assessed at $10,000 would have to pay $30 more a year in taxes.

The board of education budget, calling for a $3,757,126 levy after the committee cut $40,000 from original requests, represents the largest tax expenditure.

The levy for school purposes

Garage Fire Threatens Neighborhood

Building Owned by Henry Verheyen Jr.
Burns Early Today

Neighbors and their children were roused from their beds about 1 a.m. today when licking flames from a nearby garage threatened several homes in the 500 block of N. Mary Street.

Appleton police aided firemen in rousing the neighbors from their upstairs bedrooms which were threatened from a garage fire at the Henry Verheyen Jr. residence, 532 N. Mary St.

The one-car garage and a car parked inside were destroyed by the flames. Appleton firemen today said they had not determined the cause, and an investigation is continuing.

Firemen were called to the scene after a neighbor who had gotten out of bed to care for a sick child, noticed the flames coming from the garage shortly before 1 a.m. She went into her kitchen which faced the Verheyen garage, and the entire kitchen was lit up by the flames, she told men.

Threaten Neighborhood
Flames leaped into the sky, firemen said, and threatened the safety of neighbors sleeping in surrounding upstairs bedrooms.

Police and firemen quickly roused the neighbors and had them moved to safety on the lower floors. One house, owned by Harold Jacks, 538 N. Mary St., was scorched.

Verheyen told firemen he had come home about midnight and noticed the garage doors were open. He said he did not notice any smoke or smoldering then.

Asst. Fire Chief Harold Kramer, who is heading the investigation to determine the cause, said there were no signs that the fire had been purposely started. He said he was attempting to determine if a smoldering cigarette in the car seat could have been the cause.

Chicago and North Western Lakeshore Division, were working crews — backed up at a swift pace to get the up by a Wisconsin Public Barricades up L. G. Tieman, Service Commission, order—Green Bay, the division engineer, was overseeing the project barricades at seven crossings in Appleton.

The North Western's sudden man went to city hall and remove took city officials by surprise. They huddled shortly before noon to determine whether a court order could be obtained to temporarily restrain the railroad from closing the streets.

City Atty. Frederick E. Froehlich was out of the city and could not be reached.

Started on Hancock
Mayor Clarence Mitchell located Atty. Dennis Herring, the city's assistant part-time city attorney, and he went to Froehlich's office to study the files relating to the city-railroad crossing dispute.

City officials were attending an informal meeting of the plan commission when told the railroad had started to block off Hancock Street. By 11 a.m. the street was barricaded with posts and metal railings in an area between Bateman and Drew Streets.

The crews, from the railroad's

MANAWA—"Russia will have a nuclear weapon orbiting the earth within 24 months," Rep. Melvin R. Laird predicted here Monday night at a Lions Club "Farmers Night" program.

Discussing space and farm problems, the Republican Seventh District congressman said, "Having an atomic weapon circling the globe will not have any military significance, but the propaganda value will be immeasurable."

"Such an accomplishment by the Russians," he said, "would tend to destroy the will of the free world to resist communism."

"The orbiting weapons," Laird said, "will not be any more dangerous than having a Soviet submarine capable of firing missiles laying off our shore."

Fire Causes Slight Loss At Oshkosh

OSHKOSH — Twenty-two firemen from five fire companies responded to extinguish a fire in the American Excelsior Co. plant at 242 Ohio Street Monday afternoon.

The fire caused major smoke damage within the plant but only minor fire damage to the machines. It started from a friction spark on a conveyor system, Fire Chief Otto Stogbauer said.

The first call was received at 4:51 p.m. Monday. The fire was under control at 5:28 p.m. The blaze was extinguished through aid of the firemen and the sprinkler system inside the plant.

Okay Vending Food Service For Appleton-East School

Decide Against Installing Costly
Equipment for Hot Lunch Program

BY JACQUELINE FIX
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

A vending food service — not necessarily machines — for the new Appleton High School-East was approved by the Appleton Board of Education Monday.

The board decided to use some type of vending service for the high school lunch program rather than to install a costly kitchen for a hot lunch program.

Report From State

The decisions opens the way for consideration of vending service at other public schools. The possibilities of a central kitchen to provide hot lunches for the entire school system or of using vending or catering services for other schools were raised.

The board received a report from the State Department of Public Instruction outlining necessary equipment and chances for the school system to provide the federally-aided hot lunch program. The report proposed installation of a central kitchen at the new high school to supply lunches for the high school and nine elementary schools in the city. If 3,600 meals were served for 180 days, it would include a cash reimbursement of 4 cents per meal or $27,360 and donated surplus foods valued at 10 cents per pound or $68,400, for a total of $95,760.

Board members were unsympathetic to entering the federal hot lunch program. "This is one place where I think we would be giving up quite a bit of local control, and I would be against taking federal subsidy," said from the State Department of Public Instruction outlining necessary could not still have a lunch program.

The federal subsidy does not appeal to me," agreed board member Roy Whitney. "There are many strings attached and the amount of reimbursement in comparison to the total cost is rather small."

Poor Location

Whitney said if a central kitchen were to be installed, the new high school would be a poor location for it. He suggested that the board decide on vending service for the new high school and make a separate decision on a lunch program for the whole school system.

Board member Victor Sumnicht said a central kitchen, if the school board decided on one, would not even have to be in a school building. "But here again we are getting into a business venture rather than an educational venture," he said.

Board member Mrs. Walter Heil reiterated her support for

Menasha Athletic Chief Favors Spring Baseball

Board to Vote Nov. 1 on Changing Program To Summer Schedule Lasting May to July

MENASHA — The board of compensation and laundry education and Athletic Director Thomas Weede went on record Monday night favoring continuation of spring baseball at Menasha High School.

He said advantages are good weather, time to improve other sports, beginning games earlier in the day and more practice time.

Non Conference Plan

It was agreed that if the spring season for baseball did not hold up in the conference voting, Menasha High School would drop out and go on a free lance schedule in spring. Weede assured the board there would be no difficulty in scheduling games with non-conference teams next spring.

The board accepted a $1,100 check from Theodore Utschig and Sons, Inc., Appleton, and $1,000 check from Durrant and Berquist, Dubuque, Ia., contractor and architect, respectively, of Clovis-Grove School for the repair of the clementary windows at the school. This leaves a balance of $800 to be paid by the board of education on a repair bill of $2,800.

Stock Market Is Irregular

Factors Concerning General Motors and Election Disturbing

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market churned irregularly in active trading early this afternoon.

Uncertainties about the election and the situation at General Motors were factors in the cautious Wall Street attitude.

GM common yielded another fraction as only a few of the company's assembly plants were working despite the official end of the strike.

The national election, only a week away, was exercising an inhibiting effect on investors, according to market analysts.

Changes of most key stocks were fractional.

The tendency was a little lower on balance among steels, motors and rails.

Electrical equipments were firm. Chemicals, nonferrous metals and drugs were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 3 at 331.4 with industrials off 3, rails off 4 and utilities off 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .19 at 873.82.

The dullness and narrowness of the market was relieved by speculative drives in a few stocks.

Prices were higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Oshkosh Candle Firm Officer Leaves Estate of $200,000

OSHKOSH — An estate of amounts had been paid to the late Arthur B. Johnson, secretary-treasurer of the Victoria Candle Co., according to an inventory filed Monday with County Judge Herbert J. Mueller.

Johnson died April 23, 1963. The inventory listed personal property of $172,466, real estate of $15,000 and insurance of $10,544. In addition was insurance of $32,106 which was no part of the estate and where the policy beneficiaries.

Johnson, in his will, filed earlier, made bequests of $10,000 to the Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Oshkosh, $5,000 to the Oshkosh Community YMCA, $10,000 to Clarence and Irene Gereau of route 5 Oshkosh, and $5,000 to Harold and Violet Riedel of Oshkosh, all were friends.

The balance of his estate is to be divided into equal shares of one-third each which are to go to the Lutheran Home for the aged at Fond du Lac, Our Savior's Lutheran Church of Oshkosh and the Elizabeth Barchelder Davis Children's Home of Oshkosh.

U. S. Troops Move Across South Spain

HUELVA, Spain (AP) — The massive U.S.-Spanish amphibious maneuvers moved across southern Spain to a portable airfield demonstration at Almeria today. Nearly 30,000 troops were put ashore in an accident-marred landing Monday consolidated their positions.

A naval spokesman said a Marine from the U.S. 2nd Division who was critically injured in Monday's crash of two helicopters was under treatment aboard a ship of the U.S. Fleet. Nine Marines perished.

The two helicopters collided and crashed in flames on a rocky escarpment during the air and sea landings, but 12 of the 22 Marines aboard walked from the wreckage.

The collision was the only major mishap in the operation which the spokesman said put the largest amphibious force ashore in practice since World War II.

U.S. and Spanish officials and observers moved this morning from their Sevilla headquarters to Almeria for a demonstration of the Navy's "instant" airfield construction by the U.S. forces at Almeria on the Mediterranean coast.

Marine and Navy jet bombers and fighters operated from this portable field Monday during the landings and today demonstrated its capabilities by flying in several four-engine transports.

Business Has 20 Per Cent Profit Increase

After Tax Earnings For Summer Up, Fall Expected Still Higher

NEW YORK (AP) — A jump of around 20 per cent in after-tax profits this past summer over the summer of 1963 is being spelled out in the earnings reports coming in now from U.S. business firms.

A still bigger rush of earnings statements for July-August-September, due in the next two or three weeks, is expected to confirm the impressive gain. To come are some of the largest oil, motor and steel companies. Most seem sure to be ahead of a year ago.

In the first half of this year corporate profits as a whole had topped the year-ago figure by around 18 per cent. The third quarter returns are likely to push the annual rate to $32 billion. In 1963 the nation's corporations cleared $26.7 billion after taxes.

Showing advances in the latest accounting period are most of the metal, electronic, chemical, retail, drug, building material, and utility companies.

Stockholders already are being rewarded. In September cash dividend payments topped $2.5 billion, a 13 per cent rise over the 1963 month. Stock traders noted this was an improvement on the 10 per cent rise for the first nine months as a whole and brought stockholder payments this year to $12.5 billion. Hopes are strong for a generous flow of yearend extras.

Yearend Extras

Many companies already seem assured of setting record high sales, profits and dividend payments for the entire year. But strikes, rising production costs, and in some cases a slowdown in sales and new orders threaten other companies with a slackening of the profit pace in the current and final quarter.

Even in the booming third quarter there were individual companies that fell behind year ago results, usually for highly individual causes rather than in their own industry. Among them were Chrysler, Kennecott Copper, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco, Scott Paper, Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass, Corn Products, United Fruit and Gillette.

These were exceptions to a much longer list of gainers, and to the general profit trend which has been upward in most quarters in the last two years.

Manitowoc Freezer Firm Makes Key Personnel Changes

Key executive personnel changes at the Manitowoc Equipment Works were announced today by J. D. West, President. The firm, a division of The Manitowoc Co. Inc., Manitowoc, manufactures home freezers, refrigerators, and commercial refrigeration equipment.

Robert A. Becker, 36, is promoted from general sales manager to health reasons A. N. Dedrick, who held the post for 15 years, will continue with the company in a limited capacity as director of marketing. Becker has been with Manitowoc nine years and prior to home office assignment was West Coast Area Manager.

Stepping up to General Sales Manager is Leonard E. Froling, former Assistant Sales Manager. Prior to joining Manitowoc, Froling was General Sales Manager of John Pritzlaff Hardware Co. He had also been Sales Manager of Quic-Frez.

Filling the new position of Field Sales Manager, Ice Machine Division, is Bernhard C. Hagen, formerly Sales Engineer for Manitowoc Equipment.

GOP Hopefuls To Tour County On Thursday

Motorcade Will Swing West, Circle Back to Fox Cities

Four top Republican candidates will make a motor tour of Outagamie County Thursday in the party's annual candidates day motorcade.

Taking part will be incumbent Rep. John W. Byrnes, R-Wis. Eighth: Lt. Gov. Jack Olson, Atty. Gen. George Thompson and gubernatorial candidate Warren P. Knowles.

The group will be in a cavalcade of about 75 cars motoring through the county to 17 different communities. The caravan will assemble at Conway Motor Hotel at 7:30 a.m. and leave for Greenville and Medina at 8 a.m.

The motorcade is expected to reach Dale about 8:25 a.m., Hortonville at 8:50 a.m., and go through Stephenville and into New London at 9:25 a.m. The caravan will be in Bear Creek at 9:55 a.m., Shiocton at 10:25 a.m. and Black Creek at 11 a.m.

The group will stop in Seymour at noon for a luncheon at the Seymour Hotel, where Byrnes and Knowles will speak. Knowles will leave the caravan for another engagement.

After dinner, the group will arrive in Oneida and then stop in Freedom at 2 p.m. Next stops are Kaukauna's north side at 2:30 p.m.; the south side at 2:50 p.m.; Combined Locks, 3:20 p.m.; Kimberly, 3:25 p.m., and Little Chute, 3:50 p.m.

The caravan is scheduled to return to Appleton at 4:30 p.m. and have a hospitality hour at the American Legion Club at 5:30 p.m. Lt. Gov. Jack Olson will speak at the dinner. The event will close with a torchlight parade through the city to Meade Street at 8:45 p.m.

Japan Approves Visits by U. S. Nuclear Subs

TOKYO (AP)—Japan told the Soviet Union today that the Japanese government has approved visits by U.S. nuclear-powered submarines in line with the U.S.-Japan security pact and Japanese-American cooperation.

The Soviet Union has issued at least four warnings to Japan not to permit American submarines and jet fighter-bombers to use Japanese bases or they may become the target of retaliatory blows.

The Soviets repeatedly have charged that the United States is following aggressive policies in 22, standard to good 14 - 18, the Far East and accused Japan throw outs 13 cents down.

of becoming involved in them.

The Japanese note said Japan favors visits by U.S. nuclear-powered submarines because:

1. "They will speed up scientific technology.
2. "With increasing development of nuclear energy it is only natural that such visits be permitted.
3. "Their visits add nothing new to the character of U.S.-Japan mutual cooperation or the security pact."

Board Wants Student Time For Religion

School board members and ministers said they had never been aware of this policy.

Keeping the afternoon hours after school dismissal clear would be more of a problem than clearing the evening hours, particularly because of sports practices, school officials said.

The churches' afternoon programs generally are for grade school age children, the clergyman said, but intramural programs also interfere with these.

Spears spoke to the Appleton Ministerial Association Monday night on this question, and a poll taken then showed that most clergymen favored having a one free night for church activities and preferred Wednesday.

"We feel strongly the need of something like this," Pastor Simon said. "We realize we have a joint task in many ways, and can help children if we work together."

"Better Community"

"Our children do need religious instruction, and I think in the long run this will come out to a better community, because the children who attend synagogue or church are generally not the ones who are running around," said Rabbi Silverstein. His synagogue has Hebrew school classes after public school hours, and school activities cause conflicts both for pupils and beginner teachers, he said.

In Lutheran circles there is a growing interest in having religious instruction after school for grades one through six, followed by a potluck supper, with high school youth activities in the evening, Pastor Simon said.

Pastor Hilgendorf explained his church's new midweek program for first through sixth graders, held from 4 to 5 p.m. Thursdays. "This is the coming thing, particularly in congregations where there is not a parochial school," he said.

Involve Leaders

Schedule conflicts often involve young people who are leaders and active in many things, Pastor Simon said. "Either you have them or we have them, and we could both have them."

A free night also would be an advantage to parents, who would not have to advise children which activity to choose, commented Mrs. George Munro, board president.

AHS Principal William Berner said he agreed with the church's view that there is a problem, but said it is very complicated and will take long-range planning to work out. The interscholastic and intramural athletic programs are being expanded, with a large percentage of students participating, and the school, which also has a problem of leadership, must balance out the schedule for the large number of other activities, he said.

Crowd of 300 Greets Humphrey at Airport

Spectators Mainly College Students; Most Cheer, Some Picket Candidate

BY BOB KNAUS

Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — Sen. Hubert Humphrey arrived here with a tremendous roar Monday night, landing 40 minutes behind schedule at Austin Straubel Field where some 300 persons, mainly St. Norbert College students, greeted him, most cheering, some picketing.

Humphrey's chartered airliner—a four-engine Electra—engulfed the airport with the shaking of its turbo-prop engines as it taxied into position at the west end of the field's passenger loading ramp.

As the crowd chanted "We want Hubert," newsmen and officials traveling with Humphrey descended, followed, eventually, by the Democratic vice-presidential candidate.

The crowds' cheers increased as Gov. John Reynolds and Sen. Gaylord Nelson stepped through the plane's doorway. The cheers reached their peak when Humphrey shot through the doorway, waved once, and bounded down the stairway to shake hands with a local reception committee.

major bills submitted to and passed by Congress, including the Anti-Poverty Bill and new conservation programs.

"Successful Congress"

"This was a successful Congress," he said, "and it passed more controversial legislation than any Congress in history."

"But instead of trying to build on these institutions," Nelson charged, "Goldwater is trying to tear them down."

"If Sen. Goldwater was to win the election," he said, "it would be a great disservice to the Republican Party as well as to the nation, because Goldwater Republicans conduct fundamentally a 'know-nothing' campaign combined with an attack on our existing American institutions."

"Both the candidate for president, Sen. Goldwater, and the Republican candidate for governor, Warren Knowles, never offer us any programs or tell us what they're for."

"Candidates Different"

"This country was built by great leaders in both of our political parties. The Republican Party produced great leaders like Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt," Nelson said, "but today's candidates are different—they don't stand for anything."

"Looking objectively at the governor's race," Nelson said, "there is no choice but Gov. John Reynolds."

"For 20 years," he said, "the Republicans had governors in the statehouse and a two-thirds majority in the Legislature."

"And during this period Warren Knowles was either the majority leader or lieutenant governor. He says he favors student loans, but in 20 Republican years, only a half million dollars went into student loans to public college students, while in the last three and a half years of Democratic leadership, the total was $10 million, and it went to private college students as well as public college students."

Nelson also said Democrats spent two and a half times more on state colleges and universities, and 10 1/2 per cent more on school aids.

"Against Us"

"There's not a single area in which Warren Knowles can claim he can improve on the record of John Reynolds and the Democrats," Nelson said.

"And we know what Goldwater and Miller are against," he laughed, "they're against us."

Nelson accused Goldwater of favoring abandonment of all farm programs, the Tennessee Valley Authority, Rural Electrification Administration, and getting the United States out of the United Nations and the U.N. out of the U.S.

"He's against South Vietnamese communists hiding in their own jungles," Nelson said, "so he wants to drop a little, teenie-weenie, Hiroshima-sized atomic bomb on the jungles so he can see what's going on down there."

"Sen. Goldwater," Nelson said, "is either the most frightening or the funniest thing I've ever seen in American politics."

"Pull Together"

"There is one way that farmers can get more and better dairy legislation," Laird said, "and that would be for the six major dairy organizations represented in Washington to pull together."

"As long as these organizations are fighting each other in Washington," he said, "the farmer never will receive any benefits."

Laird told the group it is one of his objectives to try to bring these organizations together in monthly meetings so they can concentrate their efforts on a single program at a time.

"This," Laird said, "is the only chance the farmers have to get better prices for their products."

Iola Man Gets 105 Days in Waupaca Jail

Thomas Davis, 21, Was Involved in High Speed Chase

WAUPACA—A 21-year-old rural Iola man, who was the subject of a high speed chase, early Sunday morning, appeared Monday before Municipal Justice George Whalen and pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of intoxicants, failing to stop for a squad car and driving without a valid license.

Thomas E. Davis, route 1, Ogdensburg, was fined a total of $350 on the three counts. When he was unable to pay the fines, he was sentenced to the Waupaca County jail for 105 days.

The fines were $200 or 45 days for driving while intoxicated, $100 or 30 days for failure to stop for a squad car, and $50 or 30 days for driving without a license. The sentences are to run consecutively.

Food Fater's Car

Davis was arrested early Sunday morning after he took his father's car. Accompanied by a 15-year-old rural Ogdensburg youth, Davis led police on a high speed chase which ended when the car Davis was driving rolled over after striking a tree northeast of Waupaca.

The 15-year-old youth was taken to Riverside Memorial Hospital where he was held overnight for observation. He has been referred to juvenile authorities.

Laird Predicts Soviets Will Orbit Weapon

perior in technical knowledge," Laird claimed, "but if we don't use our space knowledge, we can't stay ahead of the Russians."

Miss Project Scrapping

He said "scrapping of the Dyna-Soar project by the Kennedy administration in favor of the moon project" prevented the United States from having a two-man space vehicle operational this year.

Laird, a member of the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, was one of the Dyna-Soar project sponsors.

To aid in a cut in defense spending, Laird suggested cutting the number of Army divisions from 14 to 11.

"With modern weapons," he said, "it is not necessary to maintain such a large ground force. And," Laird added, "by cutting out three divisions, we could save $3 billion annually."

"Strengthen Relations"

Laird also claimed the recent change in Soviet leadership "was made to strengthen Russian relations with Red China." He predicted that soon China will again be receiving aid from Russia for its nuclear program.

He charged the Democratic administration with deceiving American people into thinking "there is a hard core division between the Soviet Union and Red China, while in truth, they still are determined to bury us."

Switching to farm problems, Laird said "something can be done about the continuing drop in farm income. The parity ratio, the farmer's income measured in terms of what it can buy, has dropped to its lowest point since 1939. The parity percentage," he added, "has dropped almost 10 per cent since 1960."

"Pull Together"

"There is one way that farmers can get more and better dairy legislation," Laird said, "and that would be for the six major dairy organizations represented in Washington to pull together."

"As long as these organizations are fighting each other in Washington," he said, "the farmer never will receive any benefits."

Laird told the group it is one of his objectives to try to bring these organizations together in monthly meetings so they can concentrate their efforts on a single program at a time.

"This," Laird said, "is the only chance the farmers have to get better prices for their products."

realistic. With a second high school and a longer noon hour again, many students may go home for lunch, he said.

The board asked Spears to work with the architect to redesign the space allotted for a kitchen in the new high school for academic purposes.

The board voted 6-0 in favor of using vending services at the new high school. Whitney said this meant no decision on machines or the type of service, but means that the school system will dispense food rather than prepare it.

Hear Proposal

The board last week heard a proposal for use of food vending machines for the new high school and Einstein Junior High School, made by Zaig's Inc., an Appleton vending firm. Under this proposal the vending contractor would install equipment estimated to cost $25,000 for Appleton High School - East and $19,000 for Einstein School and would provide women to tend the machines. The school system's only investment would be to supply power.

Spears said today Berner, AHS principal, and James Murphy, Madison Junior High School principal, have talked about the possibility of trying some type of vending service next semester. However, a full staff of cooks is employed in both schools, he noted and "this may be further off than that."

ary adjustments for municipal employees, either on an across-the-board or merit basis.

There is still $35,000 in this year's budget that can be used for salaries. City workers received no pay hike, and this was contested by Teamsters Local 563. A Wisconsin Employment Relations Board factfinder's recommendation on salaries is pending.

Include Money

Negotiations have not started between the city and union on a 1965 contract. However, money is to be included in the contingent fund to meet pay adjustments, should they be approved by the council.

At next Monday's informal council meeting, aldermen will review the finance committee's recommendations in addition to discussing the municipal salary situation.

Estimated city revenues for next year total $5,633,596—about $95,000 lower than 1964 estimates. This is due to the lack of a surplus and lower special assessments.

cooperate, he thought a restraining order should be obtained.

The city initiated litigation in the Dane County Circuit Court at Madison recently after the Public Service Commission (PSC) authorized the closing of the Pierce, Locust, Bates, Hancock, Winnebago, Union and Charlotte Street crossings.

In its appeal, the city is asking the court to set aside the PSC decision or modify it.

Other Requests

The railroad had also requested the closing of Outagamie St., Story, Lawrence and Durkee St. Street crossings without success.

In light of the pending court decision, the railroad's move today caught city officials completely off-guard.

Ironically, the North Western also has an appeal pending in the Madison court on a PSC order which granted Appleton new grade crossings at Franklin and Washington Streets. The city plans to start the street extension project in about two weeks.

Herrling was handling traffic court matters for the city when contacted by Mitchell.

"I think we should take whatever legal steps we can to halt the street closings," Mitchell said.

After his telephone conversation with the mayor, Herrling went to Froehlich's office to peruse the file and determine what legal action the city might take.

Mitchell said he doubted whether the railroad would voluntarily delay the street barricading.

will account for $30.11 of the overall tax rate, an increase of about $1.25 over this year. New school construction and higher operational expenses account for rising education costs.

5 Nights Work

Hannemann, along with Ald. E. V. Krueger (11th), Al Stoebauer (4th), Alvin E. Tew (5th), Gerald Wagner (18th), Mayor Clarence Mitchell and Finance Director Donald E. Hassler spent five nights (a total of 27 hours) reviewing budgets.

Monday night the committee trimmed $29,400 from proposed expenditures.

Aldermen took under advisement a request from Hassler that additional coping equipment be purchased or leased for his department.

A provision has been made in the budget for possible salary adjustments for municipal employees, either on an across-the-board or merit basis.

There is still $35,000 in this year's budget that can be used for salaries. City workers received no pay hike, and this was contested by Teamsters Local 563. A Wisconsin Employment Relations Board factfinder's recommendation on salaries is pending.

Vow End of Sudan's Rule by Military

Action by President Abboud Follows Five Days of Bloody Rioting in African Country

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — corruption and ineffective gov-
After five days of bloody rioting, President Ibrahim Abboud

Abboud set no date for the end of military control but in a broadcast promised progress toward a government "acceptable to all citizens."

His first move was to take full power personally, dissolving the ruling Supreme Military Council of eight generals and the Cabinet. Sudan is Africa's biggest country — three and one-half times larger than Texas — but it has only about 13 million people. Cotton is its No. 1 cash crop although the country has a diversity of agricultural and mineral products. Sudan was proclaimed an independent republic Jan. 1, 1956, after 37 years of joint British-Egyptian rule. Most of the population is Moslem Arab, concentrated in the arid north. Nilotes and other primitive tribesmen roam the rainier south, herding cattle. A famed sight is the junction of the Blue and White Nile rivers at the capital, Khartoum. During World War II, American pilots on the run to India refueled at Sudanese desert airstrips.

Abboud was chairman of the council, which seized power in a bloodless coup Nov. 17, 1958.

Consider Protests
There was no immediate indication whether other military leaders would bow to Abboud, who also is commander of the army and widely respected.

The president said he would call the legislature into session to consider protests made during disorders in Khartoum and adjoining Omdurman and North Khartoum.

Ten persons were killed and about 100 injured in the rioting, according to unofficial estimates. No Americans were among the casualties, although university students stoned the U.S. Embassy and attempted to burn it over the weekend.

Radio Address
Abboud's radio address appeared to go as far as possible toward satisfying the rioters without impugning the army.

He recalled his regime had announced a plan last year which opposition leaders called a "smokescreen to retain power" — calling for "a sound political system."

Sudan, lying immediately south of the United Arab Republic, had been an independent parliamentary republic 34 months when the British-trained Abboud first seized power.

During the period of parliamentary rule, Sudan had been plagued with political snarls.

Folksinger Is Charged With Threat on LBJ

'Friend' Accused Paul S. Back of Promising Attempt

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A coffee house folk singer was held under $25,000 bond in Miami today, accused by a friend of threatening to kill President Johnson.

And, in Jacksonville, police arrested a Michigan steel worker, Bruce Lee Cornell, in an office three blocks from where the President was speaking Monday. They said Cornell was carrying a loaded pistol and an unloaded carbine.

Folksinger Paul S. Back, 26, a veteran of the Air Force, stood mute at a preliminary hearing Monday before U.S. Commissioner Roger Davis. But his attorney, Kenneth Dinnerstein, argued the government had no case but "the unsubstantiated word of one boy."

Earlier Statement
He referred to Reid Trencher, 19, who testified that Back told him about Oct. 12 that "if Lyndon Baines Johnson ever came to Miami, I would kill him, even if I had to give my own life."

Johnson visited Miami Sunday on a three-state campaign tour. Back's mother called the charge "a frightful hoax."

Trencher, dressed for the hearing in sneakers and a red and white striped shirt, said he "works the coffee house circuit" and called Back "my good friend."

Cornell, a former Navy enlisted man at the Jacksonville Naval Base, denied he intended to harm anyone.

Cornell said he was returning to his Michigan job after a vacation in St. Augustine, where he had done some hunting. He was held on a vagrancy charge.

Curt Flood Files To Allow Family To Occupy Home

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP) — Curt Flood, star center fielder for the world champion St. Louis Cardinals baseball team, announced his intention to move into a rented home today despite an alleged threat to stop him with a shotgun.

Flood, who said Monday that he was "upset, but I'm not angry," has the backing of Superior Court Judge Richard Arma- child custody suit told Superior Court that Judy Garland:

—Once ran screaming around a hotel suite "bouncing off the walls" and was caught by her former agent just before she could leap from a hotel window.

—Was frequently drunk in front of the children, Lorna, now 11, and Joe, 9.

—And used to take four bottles of wine with her when she went to a concert.

The testimony was given Monday as Miss Garland's estranged husband, Hollywood producer Sid Luft, pressed his demand for custody of their children. Miss Garland is now in London. Their California divorce is still pending. She is 41; Luft is 46.

Carpenter Carves Figure of Johnson

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson is taking home with her a "labor of love gift" from a Midland, Tex., carpenter for the President.

It's a two-foot high hand-carved figure of a man on horseback, made of ponderosa pine and supposed to be the President riding a fine working horse.

Patrolman C. H. Chesser holds the army-style .30-caliber carbine, left and German luger pistol which Jacksonville, Fla., police said they took today from Bruce Lee Cornell, 23, Wyandotte, Mich., three blocks from where President Johnson made a campaign speech. Cornell was booked on a vagrancy charge and held for investigation of carrying concealed weapons. (AP Wirephoto)

106 Days Long

Newspaper Strike in Detroit Is Affecting Both Political Parties

BY GENE SCHROEDER

DETROIT (AP) — For 106 days and nights, Detroit's two daily newspapers have not published.

A strike of two craft unions stopped the presses at the afternoon Detroit News and the morning Detroit Free Press July 13, and they have been stilled ever since.

During those three months and two weeks:

—The Republicans have held a convention in San Francisco.

—The Democrats have nominated their national ticket in Atlantic City.

—A primary election has been held for a newly apportioned legislature and redistricted congressional seats.

—A full-fledged political campaign has been launched.

How has the absence of the two daily newspapers affected the campaign in the nation's fifth largest city?

Bipartisan Impact
"In a backhanded way," he explained, "the prolonged labor dispute probably is helping Republican Gov. George Romney and Democratic Sen. Philip Hart in their re-election bids."

"Neither of their opponents is as well known, and therefore undoubtedly are suffering from a lack of public exposure in the most heavily-populated section of the state."

To offset the acknowledged problem, Romney's rival — Democratic U.S. Rep. Neil Stabler — had had to revise his campaign strategy somewhat, stepping up his advertising budget for billboards, suburban

2 Disagree On Control of State Banks

Federal Officials Speak at Session In Miami Beach

BY RICHARD L. GRAVES
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Two federal officials are at odds over whether federal regulation of state banks should be transferred to state governments.

James J. Saxon, comptroller of the currency, proposed at the 90th annual American Bankers Association convention Monday that the transfer be made.

"Such a transfer of regulatory power would encourage improved performance by the state authorities, and it would end the discriminatory treatment of state banks which results from the exercise of federal authority," he said.

"Radical Change"
Joseph W. Barr, chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., a government agency, attacked the proposal as "a radical change, a very radical change."

William F. Kelly, president of deposit insurance on accounts.

U.N. Members Hear Proposal to Delay Opening Session

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant has relayed to the 112 U.N. members a proposal to delay the opening of the General Assembly from Nov. 10 to Dec. 1.

A spokesman said a few nations have expressed approval in addition to the 41 countries that made the request.

The postponement was sought to give the United States and its allies time to try to convince the new Soviet leaders the Soviet Union should pay about $56 million in U.N. peacekeeping dues. Failure to pay could cost Moscow its vote in the assembly.

The bankers association, said he disagreed with Saxon's proposal. He contended the problem is "really one of effective cooperation at the federal level so as to assure relatively uniform and fair treatment of national and state banks."

Under Saxon's proposal, state authorities would have such radical powers as the say in qualifying state banks to receive federal change."

INDULGED CHILDREN BECOME HAPPY ADULTS! TRUE OR FALSE?

False. Giving a child everything he wants does not make him happy either as a youngster or as an adult. As the Public Affairs pamphlet, "What Should Parents Expect From Children?" says, "The indulged child often becomes an immature, selfish, dependent, unhappy adult. When the world doesn't coddle him as his parents did, he becomes frustrated and resentful, unable and unwilling to adjust to the demands adult life makes upon us all." Happy children usually become happy adults--not at all the same thing as being indulged.

Is most human nature the result of heredity?

Yes-- No--

No Human nature is mostly a result of learning. Sex is a result of heredity, although every person is partly both male and female. General physical appearances--features, height, hair and baldness and, to some extent, weight--are hereditary as is intelligence and probably many talents. But these can be affected by environment. While maleness and femaleness is inborn, masculinity and femininity are largely learned. Weight and, to some degree, height can be affected by diet. We can do more about our heredity than most people think we can.

A small, folding peg board making three two-plies, that will hold small tools and parts when you are taking something apart to repair it is today's fun-project.

The tools will hold small tools and parts and help you avoid mislaying any of them when you are working on your bicycle or your brother's wagon, or your skates.

Jingo Looks Eagerly to End of Political Shuffle

After Election Comes New TV Changes;
Option Time, Doom for Many Programs

BY JINGO

The political shuffling of television schedules continues and is likely to keep the keepers of the books in confusion until next Tuesday when everything will go by the boards as the networks' electronic giants do their damndest to take all the suspense and fun out of the election returns.

The latest shuffle that has come to our attention touches on ground that is hallow in North-eastern Wisconsin. The Vince Lombardi Show has been touched.

However, have no fear. Vince hasn't been bumped entirely. His 8:30 p.m. slot on Channel 2 Thursday may be taken over by Barry Goldwater, but Vince will still be around. You'll have to tune in at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Shuffling seems to be the hallmark of this television season, which got underway a few weeks ago with a great deal of inter and intra-network switches.

The early switches will be nothing compared to the changes that will come about as the option times approach as we turn into 1965. Jingo forecast that this would be the shortest TV season on record and it looks as if he's right.

The crux of the switching is ABC—Channel 11 in our area—in its giant stride gains. For the last few years—and especially last year—CBS was in a class by itself. The Nielsens were CBS property with NBC and ABC panting way in the rear. This year, however, it's a three-way race—a huge gain for NBC and especially for ABC. This, of course, is making CBS very edgy.

It should come as no surprise that "The Reporter" will be one of the first to go—and good riddance! "Mr. Broadway" also is being prepared for the blade and "Living Doll" and "Joey Bishop" are on the critical list and aren't expected to pull through.

It is expected that by January, "The Reporter" will be only a bad taste in the mouth and "Slattery's People" will be moved over to its spot.

Dump It Now

Jingo has a suggestion for Channel 2. Since "The Reporter" already is doomed and its hideous presence is doing nothing for the network or the affiliated stations, why not dump it right away?

Thursdays are a sad day for Jingo. On Thursdays Jingo can see the syndicated "Naked City" shows and is reminded by the brutal, senseless power play that took that superbly produced, written, acted series off the air.

Surely moving "Naked City" into the "Reporter" spot would strengthen the Friday card and get a many more people in the habit of using the 9 p.m. Friday slot, hence building an even better audience for "Slattery's People"—one of the better new shows—when it makes the switch. The sooner "The Reporter" leaves, the happier for everyone will be.

Combat Team Stumbles on Nazis Brass

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 11)—Combat's "Operation Fly Trap" captures a sardonic, but nevertheless humorous moment in war-torn France. Sgt. Saunders (Vic Morrow) and his crusty squad are on a routine wire-tapping mission when they suddenly find themselves in the position to catch a prize: a formidable Nazi colonel.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 4-5)—Mr. Novak's "One Monday Afternoon" is a disturbing drama of a football hero, the golden boy of Jefferson High, who dies during a scrimmage.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 2)—The Red Skelton Hour should be a rouser tonight for fans of Martha Raye, who have been missing the lady's slambang humor.

8:30-9 (Channel 11)—Pentton Place's sturdy band of sentimentalists are in a state of shock this evening—the aftermath of Rodney's and Bett's automobile accident and the revelation that wedding bells aren't going to ring for anybody soon.

9-10 (Channel 11)—The Fugitive has a close call this evening in "Tug of War." In disguise as a farmhand he is recognized from a poster by a wily old former sheriff who sends him on the run.

9-10 (Channel 2)—The Doctors and the Nurses chronicles the story of a glamor girl who refuses all date invitations from the panting doctors at Alden General. But after an evening with a married expatriate, she becomes his mistress.

9-10 (Channel 4-5)—The Campaign and the Candidates continues its pursuit of happiness—speculating on the outcomes on the November elections. Tonight, host Frack McGee evaluates the President's and Sen. Barry Goldwater's strength in a state-by-state roundup.

Famous Synge Play To Open Season for Milwaukee Theater

Milwaukee Repertory Theatre, formerly the Fred Miller Theatre, will open its season Wednesday with the famous Irish play by John Millington Synge, "Playboy of the Western World."

There was rioting when the Abbey Players presented the play for the first time in 1907 in their Dublin theater. The author's sharp comedy and sardonic humor aroused furious resentment of Irish patriots, prompting the Abbey to withhold later Synge plays until after his death in 1909.

"Playboy" was given by the Abbey Players in Milwaukee more than 25 years ago. The present production is being directed by Philip Minor, who was at the Miller last year as both director and actor.

Ralph Williams, who comes from New York and Broadway, has the title role and the feminine lead of Pegreen will be portrayed by Mary Doyle, seen last season at the Miller in "Twelfth Night" and "Teruile."

Scenes Such As This One at the foot of Mt. Jalovec, Yugoslavia, serve as backdrops for the Warren Miller ski-adventure film coming to Appleton High School Wednesday, Nov. 4. This is one of the dozen or so locales visited by the leading ski cinematographer as he gathered footage for his latest winter sports film. The annual film showing again will benefit ski clubs in the Fox Cities area. Showtime Nov. 4 is 8 p.m. Tickets are available at Prange's Ski and Sport Shop.

HEMORRHOIDS?

New formula works 5 ways for faster, longer-lasting relief!

In clinical tests of new M.P.O.—an advanced treatment for hemorrhoids (piles)—doctors reported "results were good to excellent" for 5 out of every 6 patients! M.P.O. works five ways for faster, longer-lasting relief:

1. Helps ease pain faster. You get more medically accepted pain-relieving ingredients, including Benzocaine, than in the preparation you may now be using.
2. Helps shrink swollen tissues. M.P.O. quickly releases the proven vaso-constrictor, Ephed-rine Sulfate, to reduce swelling.

3. Relieves embarrassing itching. M.P.O. is homogenized for faster absorption, faster relief.
4. Gives longer relief. A more temperature-stable base holds medication in place, prolongs relief-bringing action.
5. Fights danger of infection. Proven germ-killer Hexachlorophene combats bacteria.

M.P.O. is a development of Menotholam Laboratories. Available in stainless ointment or suppositories at all drug counters.

Vaccination Effects Don't Last Forever

I do think, however, that it makes sense to have a flu shot each fall. That might be the ideal occasion to see what other vaccinations need renewing.

GREEN BAY (AP)—Despite soundly whipped by the Rams four losses in seven National after building up a 17-0 lead. Football League outings. Green Bay coach Vince Lombardi insists the Packers "are by no means on the decline."

"We play one bad game and we're written off—well, I don't buy that," Lombardi said Monday in the wake of a 27-17 thumping by the Los Angeles Rams.

Failure to boot two conversions and one of five field goal attempts in another game cost the Packers their first three defeats. However, they were

When the Lawrence University football team invades Monmouth Saturday, it will mark only the second time this season that the Vikes have faced a second-division foe.

The under-manned Vikings, however, cannot afford to take Monmouth lightly, according to Coach Bernie Heselton.

In their first five football games, the Vikes met four first division teams, three of them serious contenders for the Midwest Conference crown. As a result, Lawrence has had to come up with inspired football almost every Saturday, with no mental or physical let-up anywhere along the way. The Lawrence coach believes that this situation is beginning to take its toll.

Haven't Been Healthy

Heselton commented, "At the beginning of the year, I thought that if we stayed healthy, we would be good—not great, but good. Of course, we haven't been healthy, and it has bothered us both on the practice field and in games." Heselton notes that at no time, virtually, has he had in his offensive back-line the four men who All-American and Heisman Trophy had been tabbed for the jobs. The injuries have ranged from the serious knee and arm types to uncountable bruises and bumps.

A lack of experience, therefore, has also hurt the Vikes, but no one can fault the play of some of the underclassmen who have had to fill the gap.

The loss of punt and kick-off center Bruce Kenton who suffered a sprained shoulder, could bother the Vikes Saturday. Defensive specialists Steve Rutz was the only major casualty suffered in last Saturday's ugly game. On the other hand, Jack Robertson, junior tackle from Menasha, is expected to return to the Lawrence line-up.

Heselton summed up last weekend by saying, "Ripon is great. Their material is wonderful. They have a lot of men who do a lot of things well."

Iowa's Kimble Boosts Big 10 Scoring Lead

CHICAGO (AP)—Iowa sophomore Dalton Kimble boosted his Big Ten all-games' football scoring lead with a pair of touchdowns last Saturday.

Kimble, with eight touchdowns and 48 points, remained ahead of Michigan's Bob Timberlake who took over second place with an 11-point performance against Minnesota making a total of 41 points.

Tied for third with 38 points each were Bob Griese of Purdue and Tom Nowatzke of Indiana.

Staubach Back In Lineup for Notre Dame Tilt

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Navy, hampered all year by a string of injuries to key personnel, will go against undefeated Notre Dame in Philadelphia Saturday with several players good. Of course, we haven't been healthy, and it has bothered us both on the practice field and in games."

Coach Wayne Hardin expects quarterback Roger Staubach, who played his first complete game last Saturday, to be back in the form which won him All-American and Heisman Trophy honors last year.

But first string fullback Pat Donnelly will be out of action from a knee injury received two weeks ago against California.

Flanker back Skip Orr, the Vikes' main target for Staubach's passes, injured a knee Saturday and will see limited action against Notre Dame, as will center Bruce Kenton who suffered a sprained shoulder.

Defensive specialists Steve Rutz was the only major casualty suffered in last Saturday's ugly game. On the other hand, Jack Robertson, junior tackle from Menasha, is expected to return to the Lawrence line-up.

Heselton summed up last weekend by saying, "Ripon is great. Their material is wonderful. They have a lot of men who do a lot of things well."

Coppo Signs; Bobcats Slate First Workout

GREEN BAY — With 1965 Olympian Paul Coppo added to the list of signed and satisfied, the Green Bay Bobcats open their practice for the 1964-65 United States Hockey League season at the Brown County Veterans Memorial Arena tonight.

Coppo, who agreed to terms with Bobcat General Manager John Biolo Monday, still is shaking off the effects of a minor hunting accident a month ago.

The former Michigan Tech All-American, leading scorer for the U. S. Olympic team in last January's Winter Games at Innsbruck, Austria, was struck by 29 Bs from a shotgun burst while bird hunting. "I was lucky—I only took 10 dark decade of gridiron for- tunes," says Coppo, who added, "I still have 20 BBs in me."

Paul, a native of Hancock, Mich., and the Bobcats' No. 3 all-time scorer, is looking forward to a rematch with the Russians, who invade the Arena to oppose the Green Bay skaters, Dec. 19.

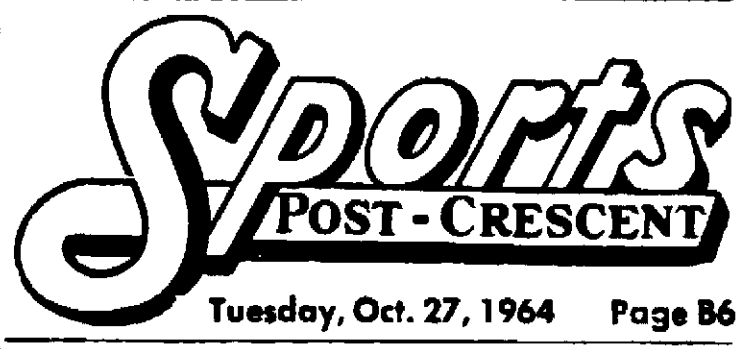

The Bobcats launch their season at Waterloo Saturday night, Nov. 14, against the defending champion Black Hawks. They open their home schedule against the newly-organized Marquette Iron Rangers December 5.

37 New Patrons Apply for Packer Season Tickets

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Fan interest still is running high despite the Green Bay Packers' 36 record of three victories in seven National Football League games this season.

Club officials reported that after the Packers' 27-17 loss to Los Angeles at County Stadium Monday, there were 37 new customers applied for 1965 season tickets.

'Era of Ara' Has Yet to See a Defeat

By Jerry Liska

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Notre Dame's golden dome has a new glister—from the aura of Ara Parseghian.

The Fighting Irish have won their first successive games so quickly and so convincingly under their new football coach that Notre Dame's legions of record against rushing in storming past Wisconsin, Purdue, Air Force, UCLA and Stanford.

Remaining on Notre Dame's schedule are Navy, Pittsburgh, Michigan State, Iowa and Southern California.

Understandably, Parseghian—who saw flaming starts too often fade into November ashes in eight Big Ten seasons at Northwestern—warns that the Irish bubble could burst any time.

He cringes at thought of injury to either of his record-breaking pass combination of quarterbacks.

High School Grid Showdowns Near

Several Title Games Set This Week

It's showdown time in several major Fox Cities area football conferences.

At least two, and possibly three, championships will be decided this weekend.

Kaukauna High School meets Neenah on the Rockets' field to decide the Mid-Eastern Conference title Saturday afternoon.

Little Chute St. John will play on Appleton Xavier — on Kaukauna's Bayougeon Field — to determine the distribution of the Fox Valley Catholic Conference honors. If St. John wins, it will today by asking Monday that the undisputed championship. If Xavier wins, the title will be shared by the Hawks and the Chuters.

First-place Oshkosh plays host to runnerup Sheboygan South in the Fox River Valley Conference headliner Friday night. Oshkosh can clinch the clear title with a victory. But if South wins, the Redmen will tie for the lead, and the championship crowning will be delayed until next week.

Owens Title Share

Waupaca has already clinched a share of the Central Wisconsin Conference title. A win over Manitowish Wednesday would assure the Comets of all the honors.

Chances are, the wide-open Little Nine race won't be decided until next week. The only way first-place Freedom which is idle this weekend, could clinch the title would be for Wrightstown, Winneconne and Reedsville all to lose in separate games this week.

Arch-rivals Neenah and Kaukauna, both perennial title contenders, have come down to the final week as the leading survivors of the M-E's free-for-all. Clintonville is waiting in the wings for a chance to share in the titular spoils. If Kaukauna and Neenah were to play to a tie and the Truckers beat New London, a 3-way championship would result.

Clintonville's narrow 6-2 loss to Neenah and Chilton's 19-7 loss game with Michigan State Saturday to Plymouth, in the Eastern Wisconsin Conference, cut the list of remaining Fox Cities area unbeaten teams in half. The only unbeaten left are Waupaca and Oshkosh, both with 7-0 records.

Waupaca is currently ranked No. 2 in the small-school category of a new service's state public-school ratings. Oshkosh tops the state's big schools.

St. John and Xavier bring sizeable win streaks into their vital clash The Chuters, who have already sewed up a title share, have won six straight. The Hawks, who lost their first three games (two out of the conference), have come on strong with five successive wins.

Wilt Works Out, May See Action In Saturday's Tilt

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-foot, 1-inch scoring machine for the San Francisco Warriors, was back in uniform Monday for the first time in a month.

Chamberlain, laid up with what had been called a "stomach ache" and finally was diagnosed as inflammation of the pancreas, worked out Monday with his teammates.

A spokesman for the National Basketball Association team said Chamberlain may play against Baltimore here Saturday.

Chamberlain, released from St. Mary's Hospital Oct. 22, Bill Wehrspann to defensive blocking in the Rams' would not have been eligible for a light drill Monday. Then the Badgers went indoors day, said the Rams' squad was to hear scouting reports and not disheartened when their reserve list to miss five games. State in action.

Braves Avert Circuit Court Showdown, but Not Restraining Order

Mayors Seek Blueprint for Big League Expansion

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The legal wheeling and dealing headed for another round today in the Milwaukee Braves' bid to move to Atlanta.

The Braves averted a Circuit Court showdown scheduled for hearing. He said he would de- termine whether Wisconsin or the federal court take jurisdiction in the county's attempt to force the club to remain in Milwaukee and fulfill a contract which runs through 1965.

Although the Circuit Court hearing was canceled, a temporary order restraining the Braves from moving was con- sidered. The order issued by Judge Ronald Drechsler prevented the club from seeking National League approval of a

Five Players Added to UW's Injured List

Defensive Backs Dominate Missing Persons Report

MADISON (AP)—Wisconsin football coach Milt Bruhn has enough injuries among his Badgers to qualify for a starring role as a doctor on television.

Bruhn counted five more players on the injured list Monday as the Badgers began preparations for their "Homecoming" game with Michigan State Saturday in the Eastern urday.

"We can't make trades, so we had better get healthy fast or find replacements who can do the job," Bruhn said.

Injured in the 28-3 defeat at Ohio State Saturday were defensive end Larry Howard, shoulder, running back Carl Silvestri, leg muscle, defensive back Ron Frait, knee, and defensive end Rodger Alberts, concussion.

Still Sidelined

Linebacker Bob Richter still is sidelined with a dislocated elbow suffered against Iowa Oct. 17 and probably won't be ready until the Northwestern game. Defensive lineman Bill Maselter missed the trip to Columbus because of tonsillitis, but is expected to be ready for Michigan State.

Bruhn was concerned mainly with the depletion in his defensive ranks, especially in the secondary where Frait and Brigham were standouts.

"We had only four secondary defensive players to start with and now two are chipped off," Bruhn said. "We don't know when Brigham will be back. We're hopeful that his kidney injury will respond rapidly to treatment."

Frait, the Badgers' co-captain, had his injured knee placed in a cast and will sit out Saturday's game.

With Brigham's status doubtful, Bruhn moved linebacker 33-yard touchdown gallop and St. Mary's Hospital Oct. 22, Bill Wehrspann to defensive blocking in the Rams' would not have been eligible for a light drill Monday. Then the Badgers went indoors day, said the Rams' squad was to hear scouting reports and not disheartened when their reserve list to miss five games. State in action.

'franchise transfer at a meeting in New York last week.

The Braves said in their federal court petition that "diversity of citizenship" was cause for moving the case out of the state courts. The club is a Delaware corporation with principal offices in Chicago.

U.S. District Court Judge Robert E. Tahan set Nov. 5 for a hearing. He said he would determine whether Wisconsin or the federal court take jurisdiction in the county's attempt to force the club to remain in Milwaukee and fulfill a contract which runs through 1965.

Out of Chicago

Ray T. McCann, a Milwaukee attorney retained by the Braves, said the club would show that its principal business has been transacted out of Chicago "for the past three or four weeks." The Braves announced recently that they had moved their executive offices from Milwaukee County Stadium to Chicago Oct. 5.

The Braves said in the petition that if the club is compelled to play 1965 home games in Milwaukee it will sustain losses "in excess of $10,000."

In another development Monday, Mayor Henry Maier and representatives of several other cities issued a statement urging that a definite blueprint be drawn for major league expansion.

The statement also proposed banning transfer of a franchise unless a home community fails to support the team as measured by a formula that would include the investment return to the club.

Reaffirm Belief

The statement added that organized baseball should reaffirm its belief in the sanctity of contracts and local ownership should be given the first option on any sale.

Attending the meeting with Maier, who is president of the American Municipal Association, were Mayor J.D. Braman of Seattle; Paul Hurd, director of the Cleveland Stadium Authority; Thomas Gallagher, an assistant to Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit; William Rasky, consultant to Mayor James H. Tate of Philadelphia, and Arthur Zecca, a deputy to Tate.

Maier said the "statement of principles" will be sent to mayors of other large cities in the nation and a committee then will be named to meet with baseball leaders.

Packers Go Down Like Champions, Declares Svara

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Coach Harland Svara says his Los Angeles Rams squad has been after the Green Bay Packers for a long time, and that the victory on Sunday was most gratifying.

"I wanted to beat this team a long time, but I'll say this, when they go down, they go down like the champions they are," Svara said Monday.

Coach Vince Lombardi was most gracious in congratulating Josephson, who contributed a 33-yard touchdown gallop and an effective blocking in the Rams' 27-17 upset of the Packers Sunday. Then the Badgers went indoors day, said the Rams' squad was to hear scouting reports and not disheartened when their reserve list to miss five games. State in action.

Ohio State Continues to Lead Grid Poll

Oregon and Georgia Tech Gain Top 10

Ohio State would like nothing better than to celebrate the 10th anniversary of its last national football championship by winning the title again.

Now past the halfway point in quest of that honor last achieved in 1954, the unbeaten Buckeyes are at the top of The Associated Press major college rankings for the second straight week.

Ohio State, with five victories, received 32 of the 47 first-place votes and a total of 439 points as the Top Ten remained fairly static. The only changes from last week's standings were made in the lower four teams.

Second-ranked Notre Dame and third-rated Alabama provided the Buckeyes with their only real opposition for the top spot, but the two undefeated teams had a tighter battle between themselves.

Alabama, 6-0, earned eight first-place votes to Notre Dame's six but trailed the Irish, 5-6, in over-all points 387-380.

Arkansas, 6-0, received the other vote for the top spot and had 311 points for fourth place. Nebraska, 6-0, retained fifth place with 242 points while Texas, 5-1, held sixth with 195.

Two teams were dropped from the Top Ten after losing last Saturday. Syracuse, eight, last week, was belted by Oregon State 31-13, and Virginia Tech defeated Florida State, 10th last week, 20-11.

The newcomers are Oregon, No. 7, and Georgia Tech, No. 8. The West Coast team blanked Washington 7-0 for its sixth straight victory while the independent Yellow Jackets nipped Tulane 7-6 for its sixth in a row. Louisiana State, held to a 3-3 tie by Tennessee, fell from seventh to ninth, and Florida, 17-14 losers to Alabama, slid from ninth to 10th.

Starting Saturday at Iowa, Ohio State will play three Big Ten foes plus Penn State for the remainder of its schedule.

Junior High Gridder Dies After Injury

METHUEN, Mass. (AP) — A junior high school student died Monday after being injured in an interscholastic football game.

One Sparmate Left in Sonny Liston's Camp

Former Champion Looks Good, Says Lone Survivor

BY BOB HOOBING
PLYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — You're the lone healthy sparring partner still standing against vicious good Sonny Liston.

Your name—Amos (Night Train) Lincoln.

Your job—Stay alive...keep well...and prepare the ex-champion for his self-styled day of reckoning Nov. 16 with Cassius Clay, the man who lifted his heavyweight title.

You've watched 10 spar mates fall battered and bleeding by the wayside. There's still three weeks to go.

"I love to see the late afternoon, it means I've made it through another one," confided Lincoln at Liston's plush White Cliffs resort training camp Monday. Fresh sea breezes blow across this mayhem manor just a few miles from where the pilgrims—they never got past the amateurs—landed.

terback John Huarte and end Jack Snow. Without Huarte, the Irish victory march could be reduced to a straggling limp.

"Our whole offense is built around Huarte," said Parseghian. "Without him, we just don't go."

"We have one excellent defensive unit and one real good offensive unit, but have a marked lack of depth behind either. We've got to stay healthy, because each time we win from left hook."

Former Coach Leahy, most successful in the Irish lineage following Rockne, has been lured to the past few Notre Dame games from his Portland, Ore., insurance base.

Before the Stanford game, Leahy predicted an Irish victory before a South Bend gathering of Notre Dame faithful.

Athletic Director Edward (Moose) Krause: "You never talked that way on Friday nights when you were coach, Frank."

Leahy, who publicly blasted recent Irish Coaches Terry Brennan and Joe Kuharich for failing to invoke a winning spirit, said "It really is a pleasure to see Notre Dame play this season."

But Leahy agreed with Parseghian that the Irish squad isn't too deep—injuries can hurt.

Mikita Leads NHL Scorers

Gets Off to Fast Start in Defense Of Point Title

MONTREAL (AP) — Fierly Stan Mikita, junior member of the Chicago Black Hawks' two-man demolition team, is off to an explosive getaway in defense of his National Hockey League scoring title.

Mikita, who with Bobby Hull gives Chicago its best 1-2 punch since the Bentley brothers, leads the league with a five-game total of 12 points.

The 24-year-old center hopes to become the first repeater as scoring king since Dickie Moore, then of Montreal, achieved the feat six seasons ago. Max Bentley, in 1945-46 and 46-47, was the only Black Hawk ever to win two point titles in succession.

Edges Hull
Mikita finished with 89 points last season — two more than Hull.

Mikita scored two goals and assisted on four others last week for a four-point margin over Toronto defenseman Kent Douglas. The Maple Leafs have

"I could sure use some help," Lee Williams of Boston came to the rescue about an hour later at the workout. He won't be back. As if to prove the all-ling left shoulder which forced him to retire in the first fight was sound, Liston raked open a lack of depth behind either half-inch, eight-stitch cut over Williams' eye with a smashing cause each time we win from left hook.

Another recruit, Floyd Joyner, watched. He's from Rochester, Minn., where top medical help is handy. Nevertheless, he followed Rockne, has been lured to the past few Notre Dame games from his Portland, Ore., insurance base.

Economic Expansion Is Cinch to Continue

BY SYLVIA PORTER

Since this Democratic administration came into office at the start of 1961, our economy has been in an unbroken cycle of upturn, and it's a cinch that the expansion will continue into 1965.

Porter

Uninterrupted prosperity of this magnitude for four years has no precedent in peacetime. A business advance of this duration — without the excesses of runaway price and wage increases — actually has no parallel in the world.

Can we duplicate the achievement in the next four years?

As a realistic student of economics, I wouldn't bet we can. It would require an extraordinary knowledge of and even individual income tax cuts we've never had.

We have proved that tax cuts wage increases — at the work. Already scheduled for government, agriculture. It We can both prevent recessions and fight recessions via tax reduction. This is now our first line of offense and defense.

Five Policies

So, I'm not betting on it. But I do dare submit five fundamental policies we might follow to help us maintain our record.

(1) Additional tax cuts in these years to spur our private economy by stimulating consumer and business spending.

Contributing mightily to the current upsurge in business the output-per-hour of workers on new plants and thus make our products equipment are the incentives competitive in markets through-given to businessmen in 1962 out the world. Development of and the major corporation in new and improved products is right now. Prices of sensitive commodities, steel, other metals — are starting to climb on a broad front and further hikes in steel are increasingly likely. The fat auto wage settlement will influence other settlements and next year's steel wage contract could be of crucial importance.

If the price-wage spiral begins again, our prosperity and foreign trade will be undermined. The Federal Reserve then will also unquestionably tighten the credit screws to curb inflationary borrowing.

Our price-wage record in the past four years has been superb. As a result, credit has been relatively easy and inexpensive to get, our sales abroad have been expanding. If the price - wage record changes markedly, so will other forces so basic to our prosperity.

Large-Scale Programs

The prime imperative is an expanding economy to make jobs. The second imperative is a labor force with the skills to fill the jobs.

(5) Government spending programs geared to meet the needs of a rising population in a prosperous economy.

It is sensible to put percentage ceilings on this spending in order to give top priority to tax cuts to sustain our private economy. It is nonsense to put dollar ceilings on this spending for our needs and wants must inevitably grow with our population.

This is only a partial blueprint and, even with many other policies added, we still might not be able to duplicate the 1961-65 achievement. But, City.

In just these five policies surely would help us sustain the prosperity of our private enterprise economy for a long, long time.

England Takes Strong Stand With Rhodesia

Threaten Reprisals if White Rulers Declare Independent State

LONDON (AP) — Britain self-governing territory de- warned Southern Rhodesia's manding independence while white rulers today they will be the white minority still has guilty of treason and rebellion if control. Britain wants a new they unilaterally declare the constitution promising the Afri- East African territory's inde- can majority control ultimately. pendence.

Economic disaster, banish- ment from the Commonwealth and isolation from most of the world would follow if the coun- try breaks from Britain, a gov- ernment statement said.

The stern statement came from Prime Minister Harold Wilson's office a day after 622 African chiefs and headmen meeting outside Salisbury gave a unanimous "yes" to Rhodesia's Premier Ian Smith's "inde- pendence now" plan.

Smith has scheduled a nation- al referendum Nov. 5 in which the largely white electorate is expected to vote emphatically for independence now. Smith then is expected to demand release from Britain, with the threat of declaring independ- ence unilaterally if refused.

The British warning sent a shock through the Rhodesian capital. Some white Rhodesians felt it might force Smith and his colleagues to retreat.

Smith's government had said earlier it did not consider the chiefs represented the opin- ion of Southern Rhodesia's Afri- can majority, which in 1961 outnumbered the whites 3.6 million to 221,500.

The Magdeburg, owned by the Deutsche Seereederei concern of Rostock, was beached near Tilbury after the collision with the Yamashiro Maru, 10,466 tons. The German vessel, with 23 British buses for Cuba as deck cargo, rolled over on its side. About half of the bus cargo went into the water.

Leyland Motors, Ltd., sold the buses to Prime Minister Fidel Castro's government in Janu- ary. Despite strenuous U.S. State Department protests, the deal was purely commercial, buses were not strategic materi- al, and the government would not intervene.

The Cubans ordered 450 buses in January and 500 more in June.

TOKYO (AP) — President Johnson sent a cable today to ailing Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda, who resigned Sunday, and wished him a quick recov- ery. Ikeda is suffering a benign throat tumor.

In military operations today, Red guerrillas shot down a U.S. Army helicopter in Vinh Long Province 65 miles southwest of Saigon. A U.S. military spokes- man reported the American pilot suffered serious leg wounds.

In the political field, U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor called on Phan Khac Suu and congratulated him on his ap- pointment as South Viet Nam's chief of state. Suu took over the post from Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh in the transfer Monday of the nation from military to ci- vilian rule.

The South Vietnamese De- fense Ministry said that the Cambodian planes shot up an area a mile or so from where American Special Forces Capt. Herman Y. Towery was alleg- edly seized by Cambodia troops last week and later found dead.

The ministry also said 100 Cambodian sampans crossed into Viet Nam in the same gen- eral area about the time of the aerial attack. No contact was reported between the flotilla and Vietnamese forces.

The Saigon government said its forces killed 35 Viet Cong, captured 44 and arrested 100 suspects in an operation which ended Monday in Quang Ngai Province, 325 miles northeast of Saigon. Six government troops were reported killed and 22 wounded.

'Shared Time' School Plans Called Legal

Thompson Opinion Given Rothwell on Kimberly Question

MADISON — With an open recognition of probable reper- cussions, Gov. George Thompson today declared his official opinion that "shared time" programs under which private or parochial school children are enrolled for part-time study in the public schools are legal under the state constitu- tion.

Thompson said such a system, suggested in a proposal in the village of Kimberly more than a year ago is legal under the implied meaning of the law, al- though he said he is aware that many authorities will dispute his conclusion.

The opinion was given to Angus Rothwell, state superinten- dent of public instruction, who said local school officers will be required to consider carefull- y the meaning of the opinion. Rothwell had been asked by Kimberly school officials about the legality of non-public school children attending the district public school on a part-time basis for certain classes only.

Thompson said the shared time program there would re- quire additional teachers in the public junior high school or eighth grade and that the public school district would be re- quired to spend tax money for text books and other supplies, but the parochial school students would not be transported to the public school. The State Supreme Court several years ago spectically ruled that the use of public money for such transportation would be uncon- stitutional.

"While the statutes confer no express power on school district boards to authorize the part-time attendance at public and Republican national tickets schools, it is my opinion that the use of public money for such transportation would be uncon- stitutional."

Humphrey Defends ADA on TV Program at Green Bay

Teen-Agers Heckle Senator During Brief Stop Monday

BY JAMES BARTLETT

Post-Crescent News Service

Sen. Hubert Humphrey de- clared Monday night that the Americans for Democratic Ac- tion "ought to get a merit badge for service beyond the line of duty" rather than base- less criticism from the unin- formed.

Humphrey gave this answer- ing, civil defense police escort- ed two of the demonstrators to a questioning panel during the recording of a television from the hall.

program during a brief stop in Green Bay. But the answer as the panel program which fol- lowed was prompted by a cluster of teen-age hecklers at the WBAY auditorium.

About 1,000 persons, most of them from St. Norbert College, heard Humphrey speak and answer questions during a 43-minute appearance at the audi- torium. The Democratic vice-presi- dential nominee Monday also appeared in Milwaukee, Racine, and Madison.

100 Empty Seats

There were about 100 empty seats in the hall, in corners of the balcony and behind camera stands, during the dinner-hour appearance. The hecklers were of high school age, and some of them had signs identifying Pre- ble High School.

Humphrey took the heckling in good-natured stride at the start of his speech but noted la- ter when interruptions continued Wilson's new Labor government that the hecklers were guilty of would sharply reduce their lu- "bad manners" which was los- crative flow of exports to Brit- ain. Wilson's experts anti- cipated imports would be cut about $560 million a year.

The chanting of "We want Barry," Humphrey joked, show- ing "our young friends are walk- ing the path of political trans- gression."

"Whenever we here these so few voices but very loud ones, we have to remind them that by November the 'Barry-picking' season is over," he said.

Later, when the hecklers chanted "What about the ADA,"

Humphrey said "Maybe a man who was a member knows why it was established rather than somebody who can't spell it."

"If we could keep them act- ing with such bad manners, they would lose all the votes," he said.

New British Surcharge Increases Import Costs

Labor Government Moves to Lower Imports by $560 Million Annually

LONDON (AP) — Britons gram designed to check Brit- air's widening balance of pay- ments — the difference between what the nation earns abroad and what it buys. To spur ex- ports, the government promised exporters tax rebates ranging from 1 to 3 per cent.

Wilson said Monday night in a television address that Britain could "no longer afford easy- going attitudes." The import levies, he said, were on "goods which a country like Britain should be able to make herself."

He stressed that the measures were only temporary and denied that his government favored increased trade barriers.

There was some fear that the price increases would set off a new round of wage demands and defeat the government's plan to protect the stability of the pound sterling. The surcharge will apply to about 50 per cent of the $1.5 billion worth of goods the United States sells to Britain each year.

The surcharge affects all imports except food, raw materials and raw tobacco. At 15 per cent, cost of the items in- volved will rise about three shillings — 42 cents — to the pound — $2.80. But economists believe that after sales taxes and retailers' profits the actual increase will be closer to 20 per cent.

Emergency Step

The surcharge was the main step the government announced Monday in an emergency pro- gram to protect the stability of the pound sterling. The surcharge will apply to about 50 per cent of the $1.5 billion worth of goods the United States sells to Britain each year.

200 Africans Jailed In Political Trials

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP) — About 200 Port Elizabeth Africans have been jailed in recent weeks in a series of political trials held in country towns for security reasons.

In the latest trials at Somer- set East and Cradock, 35 Afri- cans were jailed for 3½ to 7½ years each. They were convicted under the suppression of communism law of being mem- bers of the banned African Na- tional Congress and contributing or soliciting funds for the con- gress.

Emergency Step

The surcharge was the main step the government announced Monday in an emergency pro- gram to protect the stability of the pound sterling. The surcharge will apply to about 50 per cent of the $1.5 billion worth of goods the United States sells to Britain each year.

The surcharge affects all imports except food, raw materials and raw tobacco. At 15 per cent, cost of the items in- volved will rise about three shillings — 42 cents — to the pound — $2.80. But economists believe that after sales taxes and retailers' profits the actual increase will be closer to 20 per rior in technical knowledge," Laird claimed, "but if we don't use our space knowledge, we can't stay ahead of the Russians."

Laird Predicts Soviets Will Orbit Weapon

Mits Project Scrapping
He said "scrapping of the Dyna-Soar project by the Kennedy administration in favor of the moon project" prevented the United States from having a two-man space vehicle operational this year.

Laird, a member of the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, was one of the Dyna-Soar project sponsors.

To aid in a cut in defense spending, Laird suggested cutting the number of Army divisions from 14 to 11.

"With modern weapons," he said, "it is not necessary to maintain such a large ground force. And," Laird added, "by cutting out three divisions, we could save $3 billion annually."

"Strengthen Relations"
Laird also claimed the recent change in Soviet leadership "was made to strengthen Russian relations with Red China." He predicted that soon the Chinese will again be receiving aid from Russia for its nuclear program.

He charged the Democratic administration with deceiving American people into thinking "there is a hard core division between the Soviet Union and Red China, while in truth, they still are determined to bury us."

Switching to farm problems, Laird said "something can be done about the continuing drop in farm income. The parity ratio, the farmer's income measured in terms of what it can buy, has dropped to its lowest point since 1939. The parity percentage," he added, "has dropped almost 10 per cent since 1960."

"Pull Together"
There is one way that farmers can get more and better dairy legislation," Laird said, "and that would be for the six major dairy organizations represented in Washington to pull together."

"As long as these organizations are fighting each other in Washington," he said, "the farmer never will receive any benefits."

Laird told the group it is one of his objectives to try to bring these organizations together in monthly meetings so they can concentrate their efforts on a single program at a time.

"This," Laird said, "is the only chance the farmers have to get better prices for their products."

Ask Grand Jury Probe of 'MAGIC'

MADISON (AP) — A petition asking for a grand jury investigation into the Madison American Guaranty Insurance Corp. was filed in Circuit Court Monday by John Crawford, Republican candidate for district attorney of Dane County.

Crawford's petition charged that Dist. Atty. Michael Torphy, a Democrat who seeks reelection, has "taken no effective legal action to prosecute" complaints the attorney general has brought against the president of MAGIC and two former officers.

6-Year Course For School Heads Planned

New Administrators Program to Start at State University

MADISON — The movement toward higher educational requirements for school administrators has brought the first sixth year training program in the state university system.

The board of regents of state colleges has announced that a sixth year study program for school administration students will be offered at Wisconsin State University-Superior, starting in 1965.

Such a program had been recommended by the Coordinating Committee for Higher Education, and a sixth year course of study in school management was begun at the University of Wisconsin at Madison two years ago.

The Superior school now is the only one in the state university system which offers a five-year program in school administration leading to a master's degree.

Regents said the trend toward higher educational requirements among school boards in the country and Wisconsin certification requirements will ultimately require six years of college years of college preparation for superintendents, principals and others.

It said the state department of public instruction recently amended its requirements for a life certificate in school administration in Wisconsin to include two courses beyond the master's degree.

Laird told the group it is one of his objectives to try to bring these organizations together in monthly meetings so they can concentrate their efforts on a single program at a time.

Congress for over a year," Nelson said, "because it was hard to convince the bill's opponents that the tax cut would stimulate spending, stimulate economic growth which would in turn bring in more tax money and make the decrease in federal spending unnecessary."

Nelson cited several other major bills submitted to and passed by Congress, including the Anti-Poverty Bill and new conservation programs.

"Successful Congress"
"This was a successful Congress," he said, "and it passed more controversial legislation than any Congress in history."

"But instead of trying to build on these institutions," Nelson charged, "Goldwater is trying to tear them down."

"If Sen. Goldwater was to win the election," he said, "it would be a great disservice to the Republic and Party as well as to the nation, because Goldwater Republicans conduct fundamentally a 'know-nothing' campaign combined with an attack on our existing American institutions."

"Both the candidate for president, Sen. Goldwater, and the Republican candidate for governor, Warren Knowles, never offer us any programs or tell us what they're for."

"Candidates Different"
"This country was built by great leaders in both of our political parties. The Republican Party produced great leaders like Lincoln and Teddy Roosevelt," Nelson said, "but today's candidates are different — they don't stand for anything."

"Looking objectively at the governor's race," Nelson said, "there is no choice but Gov. John Reynolds."

"For 20 years," he said, "the Republicans had governors in the statehouse and a two-thirds majority in the Legislature."

"And during this period Warren Knowles was either the majority leader or lieutenant governor. He says he favors student loans, but in 20 Republican years, only a half million dollars went into student loans to public college students, while in the last three and a half years of Democratic leadership, the total was $10 million, and it went to private college students as well as public college students."

Nelson also said Democrats spent two and a half times more on state colleges and universities, and 10 1/2 per cent more on school aids.

"Against Us"
"There's not a single area in which Warren Knowles can claim he can improve on the record of John Reynolds and the Democrats," Nelson said.

"And we know what Goldwater and Miller are against," he laughed, "they're against us."

Nelson accused Goldwater of favoring abandonment of all farm programs, the Tennessee Valley Authority, Rural Electrification Administration, and getting the United States out of the United Nations and the U.N. out of the U.S.

"He's against South Vietnamese communists hiding in their own jungles," Nelson said, "so he wants to drop a little, teenie-weenie, Hiroshima — sized atomic bomb on the jungles so he can see what's going on down there."

"Sen. Goldwater," Nelson said, "is either the most frightening or the funniest thing I've ever seen in American politics."

Crowd of 300 Greets Humphrey at Airport

Spectators Mainly College Students; Most Cheer, Some Picket Candidate

BY BOB KNAUS
Post-Crescent News Service

GREEN BAY — Sen. Hubert Humphrey arrived here with a tremendous roar Monday night, landing 40 minutes behind schedule at Austin Straubel Field where some 300 persons, mainly St. Norbert College students, greeted him, most cheering, some picketing.

Humphrey's chartered airliner—a four-engine Electra—engulfed the airport with the shattering roar and high-pitched whine of its turbo-prop engines as it taxied into position at the west end of the field's passenger loading ramp.

As the crowd chanted "We love Hubert," newsmen and officials traveling with Humphrey descended, followed, eventually, by the Democratic vice-presidential candidate.

The crowds' cheers increased as Gov. John Reynolds and Sen. Gaylord Nelson stepped through the plane's doorway. The cheers reached their peak when Humphrey shot through the doorway, waved once, and bounded down the stairway to shake hands with a local reception committee.

Changes Plans
The Minnesota senator, to the dismay of his clock-watching aides, discarded plans for an immediate departure in favor of a brief address to the assembled crowd.

Using a public address system built into a police road car, Humphrey greeted the crowd with a cheerful "well, how do you do?"

Neatly-printed signs reading "Hello Hubert" and "Welcome Senator Humphrey" rose from the crowd. The signs had been printed by college students and assembled by the school's Young Democrats.

Czechs Shape Own Free Enterprise Plan

Top Committee Forms Modified Rule, Protests Khrushchev Attacks

BY PRESTON GROVER

Prague, Czechoslovakia (AP) — With an almost astonishing show of independence, official Economic Research Czechoslovakia is shaping up a Institute in Prague, said central new modified free-enterprise planning will be limited, and economic system, and at the local factory managers will same time objecting to attacks have vast new authority. They on Nikita Khrushchev.

The Czechoslovakian Communist Central Committee already establish their wage scale, or has approved a new economic der their own raw materials, fix plan going far beyond any pro-their own prices, and even imgram the Soviet Union or other port new production machinery states have approved. But on from abroad top of this came a new show of This correspondent, in a 10-day tour of Czechoslovakia, face of official Soviet press interviewed a number of offici-criticism of the record of Khrushchev, and others about the proshchev. The Czechoslovakian posal and found almost unanimarty Central Committee adopt-a resolution expressing "surprise and emotion" at his removal.

But even more impressive to business and factory managers, the authority and prestige of new economic plan, already Communist party officials approved in principle by the would be correspondingly low-Central Committee, giving in-castrial managers many of the powers exercised in the free-enterprise Western countries.

The new plan was forced on by a steady downhill slide in production. The rate of increase in production has slowed down in most other Socialist states, including the Soviet Union, but in 1963 production in Czechoslovakia actually went into reverse and fell below 1962.

Most of those interviewed conceded that with the rise in authority and influence of the business and factory managers, the authority and prestige of the Communist party officials would be correspondingly lowered.

An important provision of the plan is that in the event some of the plant managers try to exercise their new freedom by jacking up prices too high, competitive goods will be imported.

That is a step that no Socialist state has yet dared to take. All have operated under communism with a carefully protected home market where domestic prices and quality had no real relation to foreign prices or quality.

The central authority will still keep a governing hand on many major sources of raw materials, such as basic food items, fuel, power, rent and basic raw materials.

But, Sik added: "Gradually, with the progress of the new system, the number of centrally fixed prices could be further reduced."

'Get Out the Vote' Campaign Receiving Extensive Support

KAUKAUNA — William Rogers, chairman of the "get out the vote" campaign in the city should look up the auto dealers for the Nov. 3 election, said he in the yellow pages of the phone book, indicated Rogers, and ask for a ride. If one is busy the caller need merely to contact another dealer.

Pastors of most churches in the community have agreed to urge people to vote through the church bulletin and the pulpits on Sunday. Girl Scouts have agreed to furnish baby sitters for those desiring to vote, but this will have to be done after school hours as youngsters must attend classes Tuesday.

Fliers reminding citizens of the importance of voting have been prepared and these will be brought home by school children. The city is attempting to surpass DePere in percentage of registered voters going to the polls. A challenge was issued DePere and accepted by city officials at the last council session.

Deadline Set to Apply for Voter Absentee Ballot

KAUKAUNA — Deadline for application for absentee ballots for Tuesday's election will be 5 p.m. Friday, according to Karl E. Marzahl, city clerk.

Persons who know they will not be able to vote Tuesday due to absence from city or a scheduled trip to the hospital may secure absentee ballots by applying in writing to the clerk. It is also possible for the person to vote prior to election day by stopping at the clerk's office.

Voting hours in the city are from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. with First and Second ward voters voting at Park School, Third and Fourth ward at Nicolet School and Fifth ward at the Vocational and Adult School.

Youth Hospitalized After School Mishap

KAUKAUNA — David Sielaff, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sielaff, 625 W. Seventh St., Kaukauna, was taken to Kaukauna Community Hospital for observation Monday after being knocked unconscious in a tough football game during a physical education class at the high school.

According to police, the youth was knocked unconscious when his head struck the knee of another player.

Officers Elected for Xavier Science Club

Patricia Plamann has been elected president of the Xavier High School Science Club.

Other new officers are Michael Crowe, vice president; Carol Smith, recording secretary, and James Feavel, corresponding secretary. David Lamon, Xavier biology teacher, is faculty moderator.

The club will discuss rockets of the United States and Russia at its meeting Wednesday, and is planning a visit to the Oshkosh museum.

Mock Elections, Debate to be Held By Political Club

A two-party debate on issues of the presidential campaign and a mock election Nov. 3 are planned by the new Political Science Club at Xavier High School.

Club officers are Frank McGinnis, president; Bob Gloude-mans, vice president; William Secor, reporter, and Michael Theiss, secretary. Frank Moran, head of the Xavier boys' social study department, is faculty moderator.

According to McGinnis, the club has been formed to promote Christian ideals in government by giving a clearer and better understanding of the function of government and its role in the lives of the American people.

The club will hold a debate Tuesday in which members of the Democratic Party will argue the issues of the presidential campaign with two Republican members of the club.

The club will hold an all-school election Nov. 3 in which students may vote for state officials and president of the United States.

Routes Laid Out For Leaf Pick-Up

KAUKAUNA — Leaf pick-up began in the city today and plans call for the vacuum sweeper to cover the same district covered by crews taking the rubbish collection, according to William Lambie, street superintendent.

Persons are to rake leaves onto the terraces for collection. Lambie requested people avoid raking the leaves into gutters as rain causes them to wash away and clog catch basins which results in double work for city crews, cleaning the catch basins and still removing the leaves.

City ordinance prohibits burning before 4 p.m. and leaves are not to be burned on blacktop streets as surfaces could be damaged by excessive heat.

World Leaders Jockey for Policy Spots

None Accustomed To Dealing With Counterpart

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — The year 1965 will be the year of the jockeys, no matter who wins the presidential election. New leaders in Britain, the Soviet Union and the winner here will be jockeying for position on the foreign policy track.
As they try to figure one another out it should be a busy even a harrowing year with perhaps fresh crises and unpredictable directions.
A new crew will be running the Kremlin. The Laborites, for a change, will be running Britain. The American president, Lyndon B. Johnson or Barry Goldwater will be comparatively new in foreign dealings.

Year Ago
Just about a year ago all three governments were headed by men who, by trial and error, had learned to know and deal with one another. Premier Khrushchev in the Soviet Union, Prime Minister Macmillan in Britain and President Kennedy here.

Macmillan, the first to go, quit last October. Last November Kennedy was assassinated. Two weeks ago Khrushchev got the heave-ho into obscurity by the Kremlin hierarchy.

In the Soviet Union, two men took Khrushchev's place: Leonid I. Brezhnev and Alexei N. Kosygin. They may be only temporary front men with the real boss not yet able to claw his way to the top or already in the wings, waiting to step up.

Unknown Quantity
These two Russians, because of their meager dealings with the outside world until now, are a relatively unknown quantity. They talk of continuing Khrushchev's "peaceful coexistence."

Even if they planned the opposite it would hardly be time to say so yet since the reasons for Khrushchev's dismissal have not been announced. The rest of the Communist world seems unsure of what the new leadership means.

In Britain, Harold Wilson whose party won the Oct. 15 elections, is the man in charge. He heads the first Labor government in 13 years. But the Laborites' margin of seats in Parliament is so small he may not last long.

Wilson never has been in a position to direct Britain's foreign policy before. Undoubtedly he will make some changes in it. Right after the election he said the voters had given his party a mandate for "many changes" over the whole field of government.

And here, whether the winner next Tuesday is Johnson or Goldwater, he will really be new to the rest of the world in major foreign dealing and dickering. Goldwater has had no say in foreign affairs, is not even on the Senate's Foreign Relations Committee.

Some Decisions
In Johnson's 11 months in office, he has had to make some foreign decisions. He had a hatful of domestic chores to worry about and concentrated first on them and then on the election campaign.

He has been aware of the foreign problems but all three nations — this country, Britain, the Soviet Union — have been pretty much rocking along on such understandings as there were between Kennedy, Macmillan, and Khrushchev.

Since Britain is an ally it can be assumed its relations with this country will remain on a fairly quiet plane. The real task for the new president is to understand what the new Soviet leadership means and to cope with it.

Friends may call at Schmidt Funeral Home Wittenberg, until 1 p.m. Burial will be in Evergreen Rest Cemetery, Elgin.

Beckwith is survived by his mother, three brothers and two sisters.

Pauling Says Bombs Will Cause Cancer

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Dr. Linus Pauling, twice winner of the Nobel Prize, claimed today that two million people now living will die from cancer induced by nuclear bomb tests.
In an address to 600 trade union members, Pauling said he expects the French to explode a 20-megaton bomb in the South Pacific.

Voter Registrations Set Records

The recent announcement voter registrations are setting new records all over the Fox River Valley for the Nov. 3 election, brings to mind a somewhat cynical approach by a well-known editorial writer who questioned the necessity for some of this pre-election hoopla.

It was his contention the time has come for a calm reappraisal of the news media tradition of beating the drums for every citizen to get out and vote.

The question was raised as to whether such campaigns may be driving to the polls those without interest in a campaign and therefore those without knowledge of candidates or issues.

A more constructive editorial line, he suggested, would be: "If you have taken the trouble to inform yourself on candidates and issues, by all means get out and vote. If you have not, it is your patriotic duty to stay away from the polls."

This is the final week of a long and intensive and to some extent confusing campaign. The polls indicate that there are still many voters who have not made a final decision on their choices. This is the week when all voters, and particularly those voting for the first time, should thoughtfully reexamine the positions of the major candidates and consult their consciences so that they know what they are voting for, rather than what they are voting against, when they enter the polling places next Tuesday.

P. S. One good way to do this on the local level is to attend the League of Women Voters' Candidates' Rally at Roosevelt School tonight.

The School Tax Hunger

Each day brings more evidence that the most challenging job of our state and local government leaders for another decade at least will be the financial accommodation of the violently exploding school population of Wisconsin at all levels.

Budget requests of the University of Wisconsin and its branches, and the newly titled state university system (formerly the state college system) have already had heavy emphasis in the news dispatches from Madison.

Last week the State Department of Public Instruction, with a care for communication that showed an increasing sophistication about the budget competition in Madison, related that it wants a boost of at least a third in its huge appropriations for direct aids to the local schools, for a strengthening of its own consultative and supervisory services, and for the sustenance of a myriad of special aid programs that the legislature has entrusted to it over many years.

Finally, the State Department of Vocational and Adult Education, which has sometimes been called the neglected child of the state school financing budget, has apparently employed a press agent to make sure that its constituents know that it has problems of growth also and that it intends to present them to the next governor and the next legislature at budget making time in a more forceful fashion.

Altogether, the higher appropriation requests of the state agencies and state officials speaking on behalf of the assistance hopes of local schoolmen will involve an aggregate increase of around $200,000,000 in the state educational appropriations budget over the next two years and make of the school support expenditure item by far the largest single liability of the state tax dollar.

The candidates for the legislature and the nominees for the governorship have not particularly welcomed the tax implications of these trends. We don't particularly blame them. No politician in an uncertain and competitive situation can be expected to tell prospective voters about matters disagreeable.

But the people toward whom this barrage of publicity materials is being addressed should not be misled by the stance of optimism of the candidates on the state fiscal situation either. There may be some expansion of the tax base, to provide more dollars without an adjustment of the rates. But it is not likely to be equal to the increases in expenditure pressures, or even to the documented expenditure needs. We agree with Mr. Knowles and Mr. Reynolds, the rival candidates for governor, that the people of Wisconsin want a good school system. But we hope that those people won't be misled about how the growth of that system will be arranged. It will cost them more money and the reality in succeeding years may be less unpleasant if the educational explosion is discussed candidly now.

Troubles in Quebec

Probably little has surprised Americans more in the affairs of other nations recently than the threats of violence and upheaval in Quebec. Even the Queen was in danger, it appeared, on her recent visit to Canada.

This is something we expect in the turbulent affairs of Latin America, or among the uneducated people of Africa or Asia or from those under the iron fist of a tyrant. But Quebec is our neighbor, where we need no border guards. Its more radical demands for complete independence from Canada seem almost as if Milwaukee rather than the Braves wanted to leave Wisconsin.

But there is a long history of simmering discontent and even potential revolt in French Canada. The really basic problem is that the Canadians are not one people; the French Canadians consider themselves French and alien to the rest of the country. Those more recently arrived from other European countries tend to become assimilated with the English rather than the French.

Today's emphasis upon a new order of things for Quebec is explained by William Griffith of M.I.T. in Foreign Affairs. "Quebec has experienced waves of French Canadian nationalism before, but they were always worn down by the overwhelming force of their traditionalist opponents and by the lack of full endorsement by the Quebec Roman Catholic clergy." But the Liberal Party, which swept to power in 1960 and is pressing for more autonomy, "won because Quebec has changed decisively and for good, both in economics and in psychology. . . . Young French Canadians in their twenties and thirties, pulled into cities from the farms by the rapid industrialization, had lost the traditional moorings of the agrarian, clerical society. . . . They could see how rich Quebec was and how relatively little of its riches benefitted French Canadians. . . . The worldwide wave of decolonization, and notably the independence of French-speaking African states, added to their determination to be masters in their own house."

But the two major aims of the government of Prime Minister Jean Lesage are rapid economic development and more control of the economy by the French Canadians. Unfortunately these two are in some degree of conflict. Outside capital is essential for the development and already most of Quebec's industry is owned by British Canadians or by Americans.

In addition, the Lesage government wants far more control than Quebec now has over its monetary, tariff and credit policies largely run from Ottawa. Here is a radical departure from our idea of federalism. This is an extent of "state's rights" which is unthinkable even in Mississippi as far as the United States system is concerned since all such policies have always been the responsibility of the federal government. But the French Canadians do not want to "be recognized as just another one of the ten provinces of Canada but as the home and representative of the vast majority of French Canadians who make up one of the two founding nations of Canada, and that this recognition bring specific political, cultural and economic results."

We have often regretted that so much of the heritage of other countries has been lost when immigrants come to the United States. In their eagerness to become full-fledged Americans, they quickly lost touch with customs and language which their children and grandchildren could use to the advantage of the nation and themselves today.

But it was also this insistence by the immigrants upon becoming Americans and having their children become Americans, not transplanted Hungarians, Germans or Irish, which necessitated cutting the bonds to the mother countries. And this in turn, in spite of the variety of backgrounds, nationalities and religions, has made us essentially one people. We are Americans first and our individual or group ties to a former country come second. The people who live in Quebec are first, last and always French Canadians.

Phoenix Episcopal Cathedral Replies to Goldwater Attack

Editor, Post-Crescent:

To rectify a malevolent and unfounded charge of racism, made against Senator Barry Goldwater, our fellow parishioner, we respectfully request that you publish either in your Letters to the Editor section or news space as promptly as possible the following statement:

Recently a document was released at the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in St. Louis, without the sanction of or foreknowledge of the official Convention. Allegedly it included among its signatories numerous Episcopal clergymen and laymen. It purported to accuse a member of our congregation, Senator Barry Goldwater, of racism or the usage of racial issues for political gain.

The release of this document at this time and place was, without question, designed to surreptitiously create the impression via news releases throughout our nation that our Church endorsed it and its malignant implications.

We now feel compelled to speak out in defense of an honorable and Christian individual whom we know and respect, with considerably more basis in fact than any other area or group in this nation can claim.

Senator Goldwater has for many years been a loyal, active member of Trinity Cathedral parish in Phoenix. His stewardship has been both constant and generous in the furtherance of God's influence in our community through our church program. Where others have spoken only, Senator Goldwater has acted in support of the Christian needs and individual dignity of fellow Arizonans.

To equate racism with a man who, through boyhood, camped many summers in close fellowship with men and boys of all races in the Phoenix Young Men's Christian Association camp program—who is an acknowledged authority on the life and culture of American Indians of the Southwest from having spent literally months of accumulated time with them—is an assumption in great error. Bigotry in any form, and the nature and conscience of Senator Goldwater are as incompatible as slavery and freedom, or Communism and Democracy, or specifically racial prejudice and Christianity.

The soul and conscience of a man are God's arena, and cannot be usurped by any mortal setting himself up as a judge of another human being. Senator Goldwater has, far better than most of us, shown the people of this country a Christian stature beyond challenge.

Those men within our Church who have maligned him, and attempted to sit in judgment of him, have breached one of the basic precepts of our Christian teaching. We commend to them Matthew 7: 1-2: Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

Plamann School Should Remain in County Hands

Editor, Post-Crescent:

To the interested citizen of Plamann School. In answer to your letter of October 20 in the Post-Crescent: How right you are. Robert Plamann School should be operated by the county. The Robert Plamann themselves gave the land with the wish the school would be used for all Outagamie County children.

Our County Superintendent, Mr. Van Straten, has done a fine job with the trainable children of Plamann School. He has given more time, energy than his job has called for. We would indeed be grateful to a man as Mr. Van Straten as our coordinator of Robert Plamann School of Outagamie County's trainable children.

Just a short time ago all civic and service organizations of our county put their dollars together to build this beautiful school to accommodate trainable children in Outagamie County. Our people of Outagamie County have done a good job working together.

What do you say? Let them keep up the good work. Let the trainable children in our county keep taking a step forward as they have been doing at the Plamann School under Outagamie County.

Switch in Campaign Strategy by Reynolds Noted in Late Stages

BY JOHN WYNGAARD
MADISON—Gov. Reynolds is quietly shifting his strategy during the final and perhaps decisive week of his campaign appeal to the electorate.

During most of the time he was in office he was careful to defer to the legislature and sometimes appeared to go out of his way to praise its cooperative helpfulness on some of the propositions he successfully submitted. The executive office release file is filled with such voluntary testimonials.

Suddenly he has shifted to a new tack. He is now attacking the lawmaking branch as stubborn, if not stupid, ornery and reactionary.

He is picturing himself as the man who almost single-handedly clouted them so hard that they were finally induced to follow his will.

hand, and can be pursued with relative immunity, on the other.

Yet it shows something of the strange development of the state politics of the year. Gov. Reynolds is going around the state explaining with great pride that his Republican opponent, Mr. Knowles, has not seen fit to attack any of the affirmative achievements in the state capitol during the two years of Reynolds' occupancy of the executive office.

That, he says in effect, is a kind of backhanded endorsement of his record by the opponents.

It is true enough, as far as it goes. But the fact is that the Republicans cannot attack many of the major items in the record of the last two years because it was their votes in the legislature that made them possible, however their worth is measured. That was what the governor was saying in his more cordial statements a year ago, and even six months ago.

WHO PUSHED WHOM?
Yet it is an uncertain strategy the governor is using.

On the one hand he is creating the image of a strong man who forced the legislature to support him, even against its will, for the good of the people of Wisconsin.

On the other, he is picturing himself as the man who went down in one of the main fights of the term, under the black-mailing force of those same men in the legislative branch, as on the issue of increasing sales taxes. There may be some voters paying attention who will object that the governor cannot have it both ways.

In the end the personal stature of the principals in the gubernatorial contest will probably be as important as any other factor. With their declaration for the most part blacked out by the national presidential campaign, and the state issues even on their merits blurred badly, Reynolds and Knowles will probably be measured as men, rather than as architects of programs.

Strictly Personal

List Many Paradoxes Of Everyday Living

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS
Paradoxes of Everyday Living:

A woman wants to be loved for her "inner self," yet she spends 90 per cent of her time on her outer self, and then wonders why she can't hold a man long after she attracts him.

We have the "highest standard of living" in the world—so high, indeed, that it keeps us broke to maintain it; and a family is said to be living within its income if it doesn't have to borrow money to pay income taxes.

As parents, we hope our children will be superior to us; but when they grow older, if they tend to look down their noses at our tastes and inclinations, we deeply resent their "superior air."

As voters, most of us are proud that we vote for "the man" rather than for "the party"; but the blunt fact is that when the man gets in, he is more often the tool of his party than its leader.

We are proud of the faculty of "reason" and call upon it to justify most of our convictions and attitudes; but we rarely, if ever, employ the faculty of reason in a way that would enable us to recognize how unreasonable we are.

Whenever someone proposes a reform that might pinch us in a delicate area (the pocketbook or the prejudices), we object to it on the grounds that "you can't change human nature," yet, if we ask our children to modify their conduct, and they reply "You can't change human nature," we brush aside their objection (and rightfully so) as irrelevant, impertinent and self-serving.

We think the police ought to have more power to handle suspects and offenders; while at the same time, we decry the loss of "personal liberties" by government usurpation; just as we ask for "weaker government" while demanding greater military strength—and we fail to see, much less resolve, this contradiction in attitudes.

We reject and deny the "economic determinism" of Marx, which insists that pecuniary motives are the driving force in human history; yet, at the same time, we make this the basis of our "incentive" system, and insist with equal fervor that to limit pecuniary drives is to sabotage "the American way."

And, finally, the most overpowering paradox of all—that when we have systematically denied the rights of others, and these others finally stand up for their rights, we complain bitterly that granting them would abrogate or restrict our own rights, which we consider divine, immutable, and inalienable (but only for us).

Potomac Fever— by Jack Wilson

A D.C. official is quoted as saying Algerians are "smelly, messy people." Algerians are naturally angry—claim it sounds as though they were mixed up in our election campaign.

The Russians aren't doing very well in the Olympics, but does that entitle them to suddenly spring a new event, the free-style Khrushchev toss?

What we need now is to get the politicians on both sides back in the mainstream. It might not cool them off, but it would clean up around them.

Republicans demand equal time on grounds that LBJ didn't say anything new in his TV speech. You'd think the Goldwater people would consider it news when a candidate says the same thing twice.

Looking Backward

One Rebel's Point of View

100 YEARS AGO
Quoted from the Appleton Motor for Nov. 3, 1864.

The following dispatch from Henry W. Allen, who styles himself Governor of Louisiana to the rebel Secretary of War, was recently captured in a rebel mail taken in the South-West:

To Hon. James A. Sedden, Secretary of War, Richmond, Va. — My Dear Sir: The time has come for us to put into the army every able bodied Negro as a soldier. This should be done immediately. Congress should at the evening session take action on this important question.

The Negro man knows he cannot escape conscription, if he goes to the enemy. He must play an important part in the war. He caused the fight, and he will have his portion of the burden to bear.

We have learned from dear bought experience that Negroes can be taught to fight, and that all who leave us are made to fight against us. I would free all able to bear arms and put them into the field at once. They will make much better soldiers with us than against us, and swell the now depleted ranks of our armies.

I beg you to give this your earnest attention. — Henry W. Allen, Governor of Louisiana.

Maj Gen Canby, of the Gulf Department, has issued an order quoting the above, and adding:

The class of persons to whom it refers will not be conscripted into the armies of the United States if they come within our lines. All will be freed, and they will be received and treated as refugees. They will be accepted as volunteers, or will be employed in public service, and their families will be cared for un-

Railroads and Airlines Make Big Recovery

Comeback Made by Two Industries Boosts Confidence

BY SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Recovery of such once-ailing industries as the railroads and airlines has done much of late to boost confidence throughout the business world.

Also notably healthy in comparison with previous profit-loss statements are the textile, paper and farm implement makers. Chemicals, too, are marching ahead now after a period of marking time.

Each industry has its own set of circumstances to thank now — or to blame awhile back. All have also been helped to higher gross earnings by the general upswing in business.

The federal cut in corporate income tax rates, along with first more favorable rules for figuring depreciation, has raised net incomes for many.

Rails are particularly bright just now in comparison with last year's financial statements. They have been helped by various cost trimming measures, including labor rulings by regulatory bodies. They are buoyed by mergers taking form or proposed, that should cut costs even more.

And the rails now are getting the benefits of new equipment and efficiency changes, as well as by tax relief. But above all perhaps they owe their better showing to the general business upswing that has brought more customers.

Increased net income in the third quarter is reported by New York Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Norfolk & Western, Wash. Western Pacific, and the Milwaukee, among others. In the first six months of this year, the combined profits of the top 101 railroads was estimated by the Association of American Railroads at $339 million, compared with $269 million in the first half of 1963.

More impressive

Even more impressive is the gain of the 11 domestic airlines.

Their combined earnings in the first half of 1964 were 10 times

Politicians in Pennsylvania Working Harder Than in Past

Different Reasons for Spurt in Activity by GOP and Democrats

BY JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's political leaders, Republican and Democrat alike, are working harder than they ever have before in a presidential election campaign.

They are being spurred, for different reasons, by polls which indicate that President Johnson enjoys a heavy lead over Sen. Barry Goldwater in the race to capture Pennsylvania's 29 electoral votes.

Republicans headed by Gov. William W. Scranton are working intensively to prevent a Democratic landslide which, in addition to giving them a black eye nationally would threaten their hold on the state legislature.

Fear Complacency

Democrats, fearing that the polls might lead to complacency among their workers, are working to give Johnson a major triumph and, at the same time, capture at least the lower house in the state legislature.

Polls of Pennsylvania voter sentiment generally follow the national pattern as indicated by widely published pollsters.

One poll taken last week by the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette in the city's "barometer" wards indicated that 66 per cent of the voters favored Johnson. Only 12 per cent were for Goldwater with 22 per cent undecided.

The feelings of many Pennsylvanians were ruffled by Goldwater's defeat of Scranton for the presidential nomination.

Although Scranton said many harsh things about Goldwater in his 32-day campaign to win the nomination, the governor fulfilled a pledge to back the candidate's choice and went into eight states in recent weeks to make speeches for the national ticket.

Heavy Campaign

He also is campaigning heavily at home, appealing for support of Goldwater as well as foring to give Johnson a major triumph and, at the same time, capture at least the lower house in the state legislature.

Republican State Chairman Truax said he has found that Craig Truax, another top Scranton lieutenant in the nomination son has declined in recent fight, claims his organization is weeks and that Republicans feel campaigning for Goldwater as much better now about their hard or harder than it has for congressional and legislative any other candidate. races

He agrees that Goldwater has Both Truax and Otis B. a long uphill fight in Pennsylvania. Morse, the Democratic state na, once a solidly Republican chairman, expressed concern about the apparent depth of
